THE Infant Welfare society of Chicago will benefit from the proceeds of two subscription dances which will be given next month at the tennis court of Mr. and Mrs. William Gold Hibbard, 840 Willow street, Winnetka. The first of the summer dances will be held next Thursday evening, and the second on Friday, July 18. Those in charge have made provisions, in case of rain, for the dances to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club, Maple and Oak streets. Checks should be made payable to Miss Elizabeth C. Scott, Hubbard Woods. The patronesses for the affairs are Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, Mrs. T. E. Donnelly, Mrs. John Ott, Mrs. James W. Prindiville, Mrs. James R. Baker, and Mrs. Edward A. Russell.

Bridge is to be the popular summer diversion with most of the parties for charity. The afternoon of Monday, June 30, Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt will give a bridge party at the home of her father, Mr. Benjamin Allen, on Sheridan road, for the benefit of the Passavant hospital fund. The tables are $10 each.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, are entertaining at a dinner dance on Saturday evening of this week at Indian Hill club for their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Boyden. Mrs. Boyden was formerly Miss Polly Chase.

The formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Emily Elizabeth Prest to John Quick Magie was made last Saturday at a luncheon given the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Prest of 76 Foxdale avenue, at the Blackstone hotel. Mr. Magie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ogden Magie of Chicago, formerly of Winnetka.

Mrs. David S. Lasier, 721 Lincoln avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ruth, to Mr. James W. Harris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris of 738 Lincoln avenue. The wedding will take place this fall.

In these June days, with the air vibrant with romance, one of the largest and most fashionable weddings of the summer was celebrated Wednesday in the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago, where Miss Margaret Pullman, daughter of Mrs. William C. Pullman and niece of the late George M. Pullman, became the bride of John Harmon McIlvaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. McIlvaine. The rose point lace that embellished the white satin wedding dress and the tulle veil had served the same purpose at the nuptial service of the bride's mother.

The coronet of lace holding the veil in place bore a half wreath of orange blossoms at the back. The court train, chiffon-lined, was embroidered in orange blossoms.

Lilies and white orchids made up the bridal bouquet. The bride's attendants were frocked alike, in cream lace, wearing brown tulle hats trimmed with tiny French blue flowers. The maid of honor, Miss Isabel Watkins, cousin of the bride, wore a hat of cream lace to match her lace gown. The bridesmaids were the Misses Dorothy Derby, Helen Hoyne, Florence Lowden, daughter of the Governor, and Mrs. T. Philip Swift.

Mrs. Joseph Clarke, who has spent a year with her daughter, Mrs. Melaney, of Oak street, sailed for England on June 5. After a visit of a few weeks with relatives in England and Scotland, Mrs. Clarke will sail for the Congo region in Africa, and then proceed up the river a distance of 700 miles to the Mission station, which has been the scene of labor of both herself and Mr. Clarke for the past 40 years. Mr. Clarke left last September to resume his work and has been at the station for several months.

Miss Katherine Blossom, who will be married tomorrow to William Sutherland Bacon, and her bridal attendants were entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Charles McAlpin Pyle, formerly Elizabeth Adsit, at Onwentsia. The luncheon was followed by a shower for Miss Blossom at the residence of Miss Helen Hoyne in Highland Park. Last evening Miss Louise Thorne was hostess at a dinner party for Miss Blossom and Mr. Bacon, and today Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt will give a luncheon for the bride-to-be. This evening Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom of Hubbard Woods will give the bridal dinner at the Blackstone.

Miss Kate Dwyer is spending several weeks with relatives in Colorado.
