NEW TRIER PLANS TO COLLECT WAR LETTERS

Ask Parents To Send Interesting Extracts From War Letters To High School for Collection

MAKE PERMANENT RECORD

Desire Record of Experiences of Fighters In All Branches of Service Here and Abroad

Those letters you received from the men who fought for Uncle Sam and his allies in the great World War are "chock-full" of history.

Every letter from the shell-torn battlefield, has portrayed to you some thrilling episode in Liberty's supreme struggle. In addition to those precious words which are the property alone of the recipient, these letters tell the real story of the war. They are messages direct from the field of action.

The students and teachers of New Trier Township High school have set about upon a plan of contributing to history these messages from America's fighting men. Within a few days the parents of every New Trier man in the service of the United States or associated nations in the war, will be asked to send to the High school at Kenilworth, such extracts from letters as in their opinion will be of general interest, bearing upon experiences in the service, whether on the firing line, back of the lines, in the hospital, aboard the transport, on the convoy ship, on the submarine or chaser or submarine, in the training camp or station here or abroad.

Ask Voluntary Response

It is requested that parents and friends send extracts voluntarily. It is the plan of the high school authorities to have these extracts placed in permanent record. Extracts are to be addressed to Miss Ora B. Cole, New Trier Township High school, Kenilworth, Illinois.

It is the purpose of the school to establish this collection as a permanent memorial to and record of the New Trier men who fought to save humanity from the terrible curse of hunnish vandalism.

PICKPOCKETS GET $100 FROM CHICAGO MAN RIDING ON CAR

Pickpockets who annually infest elevated and railway stations on the north shore when the Independent Order of Grand Templars hold their picnic at Ravinia Park were at work Sunday on the cars of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Electric railroad and took from the hip pocket of Charles Sand, 1621 Winona street, Chicago, a bill fold containing over $100.

Last year the pickpockets worked at the Central street station of the electric road and secured $85 from the pocket of one man, while the previous year two men were victims of their deft fingers. This year Chief Leggett of Evanston and several policemen in plain clothes remained at the station throughout the day, which was the central transfer point for the ten thousand persons who attended the picnic.

In his complaint to the police, Sand reported that the money was taken from his pocket while riding on the car between Evanston and Ravinia Park.

CHURCH UNION TO HOLD SERVICES OUT-OF-DOORS

During the month of July the Wilmette Church Union will hold its evening services out of doors from 7 to 8 o'clock. The place of meeting during the month will be the lawn to the north of the Wilmette Methodist church. Provisions for comfortable seating and for special musical programs has been made. In case of inclement weather the meetings will be held in the Methodist church auditorium.

The sermons will be given by the local pastors as follows:
July 6, Dr. George P. Magill of the Presbyterian church.
July 13, Reverend H. C. Carleton of St. Augustine's church.

July 20, Reverend Lloyd of the Congregational church.
July 27, Reverend J. L. Walker of the Methodist church.

Milan Lusk, Violinist, at Home for Summer

Milan Lusk, well known violinist, has just returned from New York to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milan Lusk, 810 Michigan avenue, for the summer. Among other activities in New York, he formed a Czechoslovak trio which filled many important engagements in the neighboring states.

During the Victory Loan rally, Madam Pasqualli, a star of the Metropolitan Opera company, and Lusk were invited to play in East Orange, N. J. After his first number, his playing aroused such enthusiasm that the chairman of the committee announced the violinist would play the Humoreske if $20,000 would be subscribed. In a few minutes the sum was realized, whereupon the desired number was rendered.

It may interest the various friends of this violinist to know that he has made some new records for leading phonograph companies.

JUNE THIS YEAR BEATS OTHER HOT JUNES BY MARGIN

This June's unusually hot weather has caused a great amount of comment among those who pay particular attention to the temperature record and several people declare this month so far, compares most nearly with the first part of June in 1918. Official temperature records, however, which have been kept at the coast guard station on the Northwestern University campus show that this June is considerably warmer than than of 1916, '17 or '18.

The comparison of the first twenty-one days in June, 1916, and this month show that in the first twenty-one days of the 1916 month there were nine days when the temperature registered in the fifties, whereas this month, and there was one day of under sixty-seven degrees and that was the only day registering below seventy in 1916 there were eight of the twenty days that the temperature rose to somewhere in the seventies, to fourteen such days so far this month, and there was one day of eighty degrees then to two of eighty, one of eighty-four, two of eighty-five and one of eight-eight this June.

This year is also marked by other unusual conditions. There have been five cloudbursts in the Chicago vicinity, making an extraordinary waterfall.

TWO-CENT STAMP BACK ON THE JOB AFTER JULY 1

One of the consolations offered by the United States government for July 1 is the return of the 2-cent stamp.

The 1-cent postal card comes back also. Persons caught with a large supply of 3-cent stamps may exchange them, according to the local postmaster.

A 2-cent stamp will also serve to carry an ordinary letter to Europe, it was announced.

BROKEN GLASS SLASHES CASH IN ICEMAN'S ARM

Frank Meier, proprietor of the Wilmette Ice and Teaming company, is nursing a painful left arm the result of an odd accident Friday, June 20, when in falling from an icewagon he pushed his arm through a glass window in the cab of the wagon. The jagged glass cut nearly to the bone in the forearm, necessitating 10 stitches.
