

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

ONWENTSIA was very gay and colorful Tuesday when a Western Women's Golf association open tournament was played there. Most of the clubs on the north shore were represented on the links, and there were more than seventy-five players and twice that number at luncheon. Mrs. H. Arnold Jackson of Onwentsia was the winner. Mrs. Howard O'Brien of Indian Hill, Mrs. Oscar W. Johnson of Onwentsia and Mrs. F. W. Kuschel of Oak Park were winners of minor prizes. Among the players were Miss Dorothy Klotz and Mrs. E. W. Ellis of Indian Hill, Mrs. B. N. Green of Glen View, Mrs. Arthur Jerrems of Exmoor, Miss R. Barnett of Hinsdale, Miss Vera Gardner of Glen Oak, Miss Caroline Lukens of Edgewater, Miss Dorothy Higby of Midlothian and Miss Courtney Letts, Miss Edith Cummings, Mrs. Edward I. Cudahy, Mrs. J. Morse Ely, Mrs. Philip D. Armour III, Mrs. Cyrus H. Adams, Jr., Mrs. Kent Chandler, Mrs. T. Philip Swift and Mrs. George Nichols, Jr., all of Onwentsia.

WINNETKA friends are looking forward to the arrival of Captain G. Dean Owsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Owsley of 720 Prospect avenue, and his French bride, formerly Mlle. Semone Guichet of Nantes, France. Captain and Mrs. Owsley, who were married on July 15 in Nantes, arrived in New York last Sunday and are expected here next Sunday. At present they are spending a few days with Captain Owsley's uncle, Major Frederick D. Owsley, at Tiverton, Greenwood, Virginia. Captain Owsley was in France about twenty-one months.

Yesterday's program at Ravinia Park for the children was exceedingly interesting. Mr. McDonald, a whistler of note, who gives imitations of bird songs and calls, being the main attraction. Next Thursday, August 28, will be Field Day for the children, in place of the usual entertainment in the pavilion. There will be races for the girls and for the boys, between the ages of six and twelve inclusive. As many as possible are urged to come and join in the fun. The children are not asked to come in costume.

The opera for Saturday evening will be "Romeo and Juliet," and on Sunday evening, "L'Amore Dei Tre Re," will be presented.

Mrs. David S. Lasier, 721 Lincoln avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Ruth, to James W. Harris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris, 738 Lincoln avenue, which took place at noon on Monday, August 18, at St. Peter's church, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will make their home in Winnetka after October 1.

Mrs. Kenneth Lord is the guest of Mrs. Henri Delebecque for two weeks. Mrs. Lord was formerly Miss Van Aiken, the nurse who left with Dr. Alice Barlow-Brown and Mrs. Delebecque for France two years ago, and contributed to making Winnetka dispensaries in Lorraine, France, such a success.

Miss Elizabeth Stuart of Kenilworth landed in New York early this week from France, where she has been in the Y. M. C. A. canteen service for almost a year. Her sister, Miss Harriet Stuart, went to New York to meet her.

After eight weeks in the Evanston hospital with typhoid pneumonia, Mr. Howard Hoyt has left with Mrs. Hoyt and their little daughter for Trout Lake, Wisconsin, to convalesce. En route they are spending a fortnight with relatives in Madison, Wis.

It is probable that a number of young people from Winnetka will go to Lake Geneva next week to be present at the lawn party and dance that Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Swift will give next Friday evening at their residence, "Hortensia Villa."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dean and two sons, Fuller and Louis, of 441 Willow street, started on an automobile trip through the Green Bay district, on Wednesday of this week.

Lieutenant Endicott Bradstreet, 335 Ridge avenue, arrived in New York from Brest, France, on board the U. S. S. Finistere, on Sunday, August 17, and is expected home within the next few days.

Lieutenant Dudley Bradstreet, 335 Ridge avenue, received his honorable discharge from the U. S. army at the Fort Sheridan hospital, on August 12.

Mr. E. M. Thon and family of 1290 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, are spending the summer and entire winter at Long Beach, California. They do not expect to return to Winnetka until May 1920.

George W. McKinney has received his honorable discharge from active service in the navy, and has resumed his position at the Winnetka State Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Whitman are spending the summer at Edgarton, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Grace Kien Madison is making her home at 923 Oak street, Winnetka, since her return in July from Europe. Mrs. Madison has just spent five years studying singing and operatic roles under the direction of the best teachers abroad. Previous to this Mrs. Madison taught many years in Chicago and New York, and was very successful in concert and operatic parts. During the coming year she will teach in the Sherwood School of Music in Chicago. Mrs. Madison will prove a valuable addition to the musical circles of the Village.

Mrs. Frances Frye, mother of Mrs. Stuart Marchant, and Mrs. Caroline Greene, formerly resident of Elm street, Winnetka, celebrated her ninetieth birthday on August 10, at the home of Mrs. Marchant in Evanston. Mrs. Frye was the recipient of many lovely gifts in honor of this occasion.

The pulpit of the Congregational church will be occupied on Sunday, by Dr. Robert W. Gammon. On August 31 and September 7 Professor Theodore G. Soares, of the University of Chicago, will speak. September 14, Reverend Austin Richards will return to Winnetka.

Mrs. Edwin Slater of New York City, with her baby daughter, Rosalie June Slater, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith at "Bluff Edge", Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. Douglas Smith entertained the Missionary Committee of the Woman's society of the Congregational church at luncheon at her home in Hubbard Woods yesterday.

Miss Cordelia Reed of Covington, Indiana, will be the week-end guest of Miss Ruth Lieber, 988 Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martyn have moved from 903 Cherry street to 517 Fir street.

Obedient Little Winifred

Winifred was in the habit of visiting a neighbor and coming home with her hands full of chocolates, I remonstrated with her about it and the day after she stood by the neighbor's door and said: "My mother says I'm not to come in if you are busy, but you're not busy, and she says I must never ask you for chocolates." A moment's pause and then she spoke winningly: "But you haven't any chocolates, have you?"

The Difference

In a piece of good meat and a piece of poor meat is in the satisfaction one gets in enjoying it, not in the small difference in cost.
