

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

OF ESPECIAL INTEREST to all is the informal reception tendered to Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and his brother, Captain Archibald Roosevelt, last Sunday afternoon at the home of Major E. J. Vattman in Wilmette. Many of us recall the visit the late "Teddy" Roosevelt made to the north shore three years ago, and it was with warm enthusiasm and delight that we ventured forth to welcome his two sons. As we all know Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt is making a tour of the country in the interests of the American Legion, and the Captain and his family are moving to Chicago, and expect to make their home in Glencoe. Among the guests of the afternoon was Colonel Milton Foreman.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been received from Miss Ann M. McAtee of 3728 Western Parkway, Louisville, Ky., of the marriage of her niece, Miss Mary Virginia Watson, to Lieutenant John Endicott Bradstreet, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Bradstreet of 335 Ridge Avenue. The ceremony took place on Tuesday, September 2, at the residence of Right Reverend D. O'Donoghue, Bishop of Louisville, with Reverend J. P. Cronin, Vicar General, officiating. Only the immediate family was present. Lieutenant Bradstreet was stationed in Louisville prior to going overseas from where he has just returned and expects his discharge from the service at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradstreet will be at home in Winnetka after October 1.

THE FIRST DANCE under the auspices of the "Old Maids and Bachelors Over 22 club" took place Wednesday evening at the Kenilworth club. This exclusive, little organization also calls itself the Debutante club. Its avowed purpose is to bring together the various groups of young folks in a sort of community circle. Miss Charlotte Parmelee was one of the founders of the club. Associated with her are the Misses Adele Hall, Priscilla Allen and Olive Bulley. Jack Charles, John Parker, Miles Wright and John Forbes.

There will be a dinner dance at Indian Hill club on Thursday evening, September 18.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., has had quite a colony of Chicagoans during the summer. Many are still there and others are leaving for an annual fall visit in New York before coming home. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ware, formerly of Chicago, have built a beautiful home at Vineyard Haven, and this season both of their daughters, Mrs. Louise Ware Lytton and Mrs. G. Thomsen von Colditz and their children, have been with them all summer. When Mrs. von Colditz returns she and her husband will live in Evanston. They sold their attractive little Winnetka place on Hill road to Mr. Alanson Follansbee.

Mrs. Grace Kien Madison, 923 Oak street, has recently returned from European capitals, where she has spent a number of years, studying with the foremost teachers and later appearing in the leading roles in many of our beloved operas. This fall she is to be connected with the Sherwood School of Music, and also intends to open classes in Winnetka and other north shore towns.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lust and daughter, Eleanor of Kenilworth, left on Saturday, accompanied by Judge and Mrs. Harry Olson and daughter, Jane, of Chicago, for a motor trip in the south and east.

The Winnetka Relief and Aid society is sorely in need of wearing apparel, especially clothing and shoes for children of school age. Kindly send to Miss Kate Dwyer, 858 Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Philip Swift of Sheridan road, have returned from Lake Geneva, where they were the guests, for a week, of Mr. Swift's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Swift at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stanley Rickards, who have been in Hubbard Woods all summer, returned to their apartment at 10 East Schiller street, early this week.

Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty, 559 Lincoln avenue, has returned from Griswold, Ludington, Michigan, where she has been spending the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Bodman of Winnetka are at Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Fleming, 806 Linden avenue, have returned from northern Wisconsin where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Barret Conway and children, 387 Linden street, have returned from an extended trip to Estes Park, Colorado.

Reverend and Mrs. J. W. F. Davies have returned from Ludington, Mich., where they have been spending several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Whitman and family, 686 Hill road, will return September 10 from Edgartown, Mass.

his leg and arm which were broken TALK-TWO in the fall. At first it was thought that his injuries would be fatal, but Dr. William R. Parkes said later that he undoubtedly would recover and possibly an amputation would not be necessary.

In a little cottage at 512 Oakdale avenue, Glencoe, Mrs. Miller and three children, full of praise for the heroic efforts of their father, are awaiting word hourly of his condition.

"Why will people take chances and then cause others to sacrifice their lives to save them," said Mrs. Miller. "I don't know just what we can do. I was not even notified of my husband's injury, but when he did not arrive home I went to his crossing and there they showed me the paper."

Mrs. Miller has a baby eight months old and two sons, John and James, 7 and 5 years old.

Mr. Tanner had been cashier for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Chicago for about three years. He came here from Albany, N. Y., where he held a similar position with the railroad.

Mrs. Francis Cassidy of Albany, N. Y., sister of Mr. Tanner, has decided to adopt the three orphaned children, Helen, 5½ years old, William and Lyman, three year old twins. The three children and their grandmother, Mrs. Chatley, will leave Hubbard Woods this week for their new home.

Children's hand made Dresses. Sweaters and Boys' Suits—I will have these on exhibition at Schlieske's Store, 563 Lincoln avenue, Thursday and Friday, September 1 and 12. Beautiful materials and fine needlework make these most desirable. Mrs. Gardner Rear, representative.

Doing One's Best.

A sculptor who wanted to express an idea in tangible form might prefer clay to marble or wood to either. But if he were in earnest he would take what he could get—and express himself through it as well as he could. It is taking what we can get and doing our best with it that makes all the difference between successful and unsuccessful lives.

Poor Trail of Human Nature.

He that easily believes rumors has the principle within him to augment rumors. It is strange to see the ravenous appetite with which some devourers of character and happiness fix upon the sides of the innocent and unfortunate.—Jane Porter

The Misses Alice and Caroline De Windt of Sheridan road, have been spending the summer at Mrs. Gulick's camp at Sebago Lake, Maine. Miss Alice De Windt has returned recently but her sister remained to visit friends at Bar Harbor, Maine, and will return next week. Both of the young women will leave October 1 to attend schools in the east, Miss Alice going to Miss Walker's school at Sinsbury, Conn., and Miss Caroline going to Farmington college, Conn.

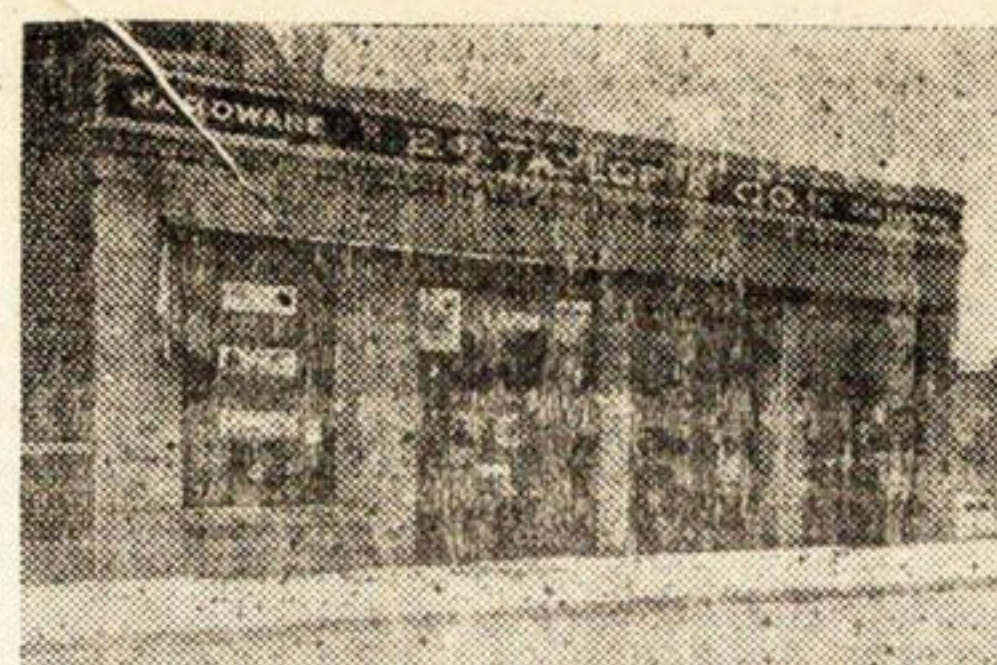

Indian Hill club was the scene of a delightful Labor Day celebration, with golf during the day and concluding in the evening with a dinner dance, which was well attended. On Wednesday, September 17, the Women's activities will close for the season, and the regular golf day will be discontinued. On this occasion some interesting plans are in preparation. There will be the usual golf, luncheon and bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dale, 519 Ash street, are making an extensive tour of the west, this month, intending to spend a great deal of time in the Canadian Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNie, 266 Forest avenue, will spend the week end in Madison, Wisconsin.

Mrs. L. Cook of Kenosha, Wis., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 988 Elm street, and will remain until after the wedding of Miss Ruth Lieber which will take place on September 13.

Mrs. Harry W. Mons and family of 921 Oakwood avenue have returned from a month's stay at Spring Lake Beach, New Jersey.
