

URGE EVERY SCHOOL TO PLANT A TREE

Calling on every school to plant a tree this fall, the American Forestry association directs attention to the approaching Arbor days and the importance of the month of September in the life of a tree. "Organize your school and plant a memorial tree," says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association, who points to what a fine memorial a living tree will make in 1940, if the class of 1920 plants a tree now. The association will send free tree-planting instructions and a tree-planting day program to any one who asks for them. Important points for September are:

- Prune all dead branches of importance. Do not prune unnecessarily; prune as little of the live wood as possible; make all cuts close to the trunk or main limb, and cover all wounds with coal tar.
- Remove and destroy egg masses of the tussock moth and like leaf-eating insects.
- For removal in winter mark all hopelessly infested and dead trees. You can mark these better before the leaves drop, but you can cut them down to better advantage in winter.
- Plant evergreens in early September. Move them with a ball of soil.

Every day this fall will be Arbor day, the association says, and it urges that all memorial tree planting be reported, that it may enter these trees on the national honor roll it is compiling, and for which it is sending out free certificates of registration. The approaching Arbor days follow:

Georgia, first Friday in December; Hawaii, first Friday in November; Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Maine, Minnesota, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin, Washington, Wyoming, by proclamation of their respective governors; North Carolina, first Friday after November 1; Porto Rico, last Friday in November; South Carolina, third Friday in November; Tennessee, date in November named by the county superintendents.

Making It a Family Affair

Junior was much interested in his mother's approaching marriage. A short time before the date set for the wedding his mother was ill with tonsillitis. Junior was in distress and going to his mother he said: "Mother, hurry up and get well, for it won't do for you to be sick when we marry

Richard." "Thoughtfully planned, conveniently arranged, and carefully constructed buildings are as essential in the country as in the city."

Pride at Root of Mistakes.

I have been more and more convinced, the more I think of it, that, in general, pride is at the bottom of all great mistakes. All the other passions do occasional good; but whenever pride puts in its word, everything goes wrong, and what it might really be desirable to do, quietly and unobtrusively, it is mortally dangerous to do proudly.—Ruskin.

Doing One's Best.

A sculptor who wanted to express an idea in tangible form might prefer clay to marble or wood to either. But if he were in earnest he would take what he could get—and express himself through it as well as he could. It is taking what we can get and doing our best with it that makes all the difference between successful and unsuccessful lives.

Let Us Demonstrate This Wonderful Range

You've wanted the convenience and the economy of a range which would burn any fuel you desired—gas, coal or wood. You've wanted a range that was beautiful, durable, sanitary, dependable.

And above all things, you've wanted one that would be easy to operate, simple in construction.

All right. Here's the range! The range that burns gas, coal or wood or gas and coal together. And has no parts to change. When you shift fuels, all you do is turn a key.

UNIVERSAL COMBINATION RANGE

With This Range You Can

Keep your kitchen warm in winter by using coal and take the chill off your house without recourse to the furnace.

Keep your kitchen cool in summer by using gas.

Do your cooking and baking on the top or in the oven with coal or with gas, or use both together if you want more "speed."

Save an enormous amount of fuel and labor—and cooking material.

Take unending joy and pride.

Beautiful, durable, compact, complete, replete with everything that makes a woman love her range.

But come in and let us show you. No obligations.
