

Social Happenings on the North Shore by Ruth Risley

THE FIRST MEETING of the Winnetka Woman's club for the coming season will be held on Thursday, October 2. The speaker for the afternoon, Miss Anna Page Scott, whose subject, "The Relations of Art to Industry" is one of great interest at this time, is an alumna of the Chicago Art Institute, a member of the Fellowship of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, has studied abroad and been a teacher of art in the Mechanics Institute in Rochester, New York. Miss Scott has had a varied experience in this field which offers so many opportunities to men and women now that necessity is forcing us to realize the importance of uniting beauty and utility and to develop a school of industrial design of our own. Our country has been far behind Europe in recognizing industrial design as an art, and Miss Scott will have much of interest to say on the subject that touches each of us, for on the relation of art and industry depends the beauty of our whole environment. It is hoped a large audience will greet Miss Scott and mark the opening of an interesting season.

Landis and Mrs. Landis, took place last Saturday evening at the Winnetka Congregational church. The Reverend David Seaton read the service, which was followed by a small reception at the residence of the bride's parents.

Miss Susanne Landis, sister of the bridegroom, attended Miss Keehn as maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert Warner was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Parmalee, Miss Agnes Pease, Miss Priscilla Allen, Miss Marion Shattuck, Mrs. John Coolidge, and Mrs. Frank Gerould.

A number of north shore young men and women have attended many of the Bachelor and Benedict affairs in pre-war times. Announcements were received early this week stating that their custom of entertaining by a dance to be given Thanksgiving eve at a place to be announced later will be resumed this year. The parties at which these young men have been hosts in former years were discontinued in 1916, because so many of the members were in the service. The dance in November will be hailed with delight by those who have enjoyed them in former years, and by the numerous debutantes who will have made their bow to society by that time.

Joseph Murphy, son of Mrs. Catherine Murphy, 990 Fig street, has recently received his discharge from the navy.
