MRS. DWIGHT C. ORCUTT has charge of the first of the series of informal musical afternoons to be given this year at the Woman's club under the auspices of the Music committee. Mrs. Orcutt will read a paper on "Italian Musicians of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries," and Mrs. Warner Robinson, Mrs. Orcutt and Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer will give numbers representative of the period. All club members who are interested in music are cordially invited to attend this meeting which will be held on Wednesday, October 22, at 3 o'clock.

A pretty fall wedding was that of Miss Mary Klauke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klauke, 1173 Asbury avenue, and Mr. Thomas Golden of Austin, which was solemnized on Wednesday morning of last week at Sacred Heart church, Rev. F. J. Haarth reading the service at 9 o'clock. The bride wore a lovely gown of white bridal satin, trimmed in lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Her veil of tulle fell from a tiny lace cap to the full length of her gown. Miss Cecelia Klauke, who attended her sister, as maid of honor, wore a costume of pink georgette and satin, and the two bridesmaids, the Misses Mary Geimar and Margaret Klauke, were dressed in lavender and yellow frocks of satin and georgette. All of the attendants wore large black velvet picture hats, and carried bouquets of tea roses. Mr. Hugh Golden, brother of the groom, served as best man, and the ushers were Frank Klauke and Martin Egloff.

In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Hubbard Woods, after which the young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Iowa. After November 1, they will make their home in Austin.

Mr. Alvar Bournique will open his dancing classes at the Winnetka Woman's club on Tuesday afternoon of next week.

The Lincoln Avenue Circle will hold an all-day meeting on Monday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. F. R. Greene, 776 Prospect avenue.

A group of young married couples will give the first of a series of dancing parties next Tuesday evening at the Winnetka Woman's club.

Mrs. Maurice Berkson, 488 Ash street, entertained at a children's party this afternoon at the Woman's club, in honor of her daughter, Ethel.

Mrs. W. S. Hamm of 270 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, is attending the National convention of the W. C. T. U. at St. Louis, this week.

A meeting of the Mission Study class will be held on Wednesday, October 29, instead of on October 22, at the home of Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, 1004 Pine street.

WINNETKANS!

Dr. Alice Barlow-Brown

will be the main speaker

Sunday Evening, October 19th

At Community House

Corner of Pine St. and Lincoln Ave.

Dr. Brown did wonderful work by representing Winnetka in the service of stricken France. This will give us all an opportunity to greet Dr. Brown and hear her own story of her work abroad.

These Community Sunday Evening meetings are for every person in Winnetka. And the meetings are very much worth-while—ask those who attended last Sunday night.

Conducted jointly by all Protestant Churches in Winnetka
