

New Trier High Notes

Waukegan went down for the count Saturday afternoon on the local field when New Trier, aided considerably by the brilliant playing of Ted Richards, romped away with a 49-0 game.

Richards was in the limelight during the entire game. He finished with five touchdowns, a field goal, and four goals from touchdown to his credit. Of course Ted was blessed with good interference and received timely aid from MacLean and Wright, not mentioning several other worthies.

Bob Wienecke was also conspicuous by his snappy work. Bob hit the Waukegan line so hard at times that he left it in a dazed condition at the end of the pastime.

Deerfield will oppose the Big Black team Saturday afternoon in the first league game. All dope points to a Black victory if one can draw any conclusions after scanning the respective scores of Deerfield and New Trier in their Waukegan game.

Morton came to New Trier Saturday morning with a poor team and went home in the same condition, with the possible exception of some minor bruises. The New Trier boys were in a fighting mood and won easily, 10-0. Oak Park will be the opponent for this week. The game begins at 10:30 and ends in New Trier's favor if one may believe Jack Patterson.

At the first meeting of the Dramatic club, held last Friday Harlan Ware was elected president; Wesley Alabeck, vice president; and Marcia Lauer was named secretary. A meeting, partly social, was announced for October 24.

The Girls' Athletic association will enjoy themselves at a party to be given this afternoon in their gymnasium. There will be an interesting program, dancing and, and—eats!

Coach Jackson is extremely confident of trouncing Tilden Tech this evening in the first meet of the season in the local natatorium.

Tilden will be represented by a strong team which will do its best to open New Trier's season with a win. But Low, Schmedtgen, Weld, Robins and several others will have something to say in the final count.

The New Trier News will announce its editorial staff next week. A careful selection will be made as to the most competent students to handle the respective positions in the proper manner. The News has a good start, a snappy "make-up", the good will of everyone and a subscription list of nearly 800.

"The Giant Keepers"

Over on the Water Front Lives a Giant of enormous power. His name is Gas. There is no limit to the amount of work he can shoulder. But like any other great force he must have keepers to see that he is always on the job.

The Giant Keepers are the men who have put their money into the property and the gas company employees,—at the plant on the distribution system, in the office. They are all instrumental in delivering the service of gas, the giant, to our 12,200 customers.

The Job of Keeping Gas in Harness and constantly traveling along Good Service Road is not an easy one. The employees of the gas company must be capable of meeting all emergencies in a manner that saves the consumer from even knowing that the Giant Keepers are having trouble with the Giant.

This Means that Money Must be Obtained from outside sources when revenue from gas sales fails to cover expenses of providing service. The North Shore Gas Company has had to face that situation for many months during the last two years. Tho the income from the sale of gas has not paid the cost of the business, the money has been borrowed to make up the losses and keep the standard of service on the high level demanded by the public.

During the Period of Scarcity and high cost of materials and money, the men responsible for the property have found it extremely difficult at times to maintain all the equipment on a basis which insures Good Service—always. But it has been done in spite of difficulties.

Keeping the Giant and Making of Him a Willing and capable public servant is the Gas Company's livelihood. That the public is thoroughly alive to the High standards of Gas Service the company should maintain we know from experience. That the Public should be just as thoroughly alive to the needs of the Giant Keepers is nothing more or less than fair. Good service, honestly provided on the part of the Gas Company—fair compensation for the service on the part of the Public—that is a balance that must be maintained in order that the Giant may be always equal to his huge task.

The North Shore Gas Company has but one Goal in view—To provide gas service that pleases the public, at a fair and honest profit. That is the course of Good Service Road.

The next statement of this series will appear in this newspaper next week.

THE CUP

YES, life is full of many things, But when we "total up,"

We find more sweet than bitter in Life's overflowing cup.

And when we see our pots and pans

With sunshine gleam and glow,

We say "Ha, ha, one blessing more,

We have—

LOOK IN A MIRROR

Are there any lines between your eyes? If so, ask yourself the question, "Why?"

Many people have a constant scowl caused solely by eyestrain. This is often so disfiguring that it doesn't matter how attractive the person otherwise appears—the scowl spoils it all.

In most cases scowls can be "smoothed" out by relieving the eyestrain.

If you have any symptoms of eyestrain you should let us examine your eyes at once. Don't wait until ugly lines appear between the eyes.
