

WILL HELP SOLDIERS FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS

Captain Benjamin K. Hayes, tuberculosis expert from the United States Army, and T. B. Kidner, late of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, have been added to the staff of the National Tuberculosis association. Both will take part in the country-wide campaign to win back to health United States soldiers who have the disease and to cut down the annual death rate of 150,000 in the United States due to tuberculosis.

Captain Hayes is going into the field to teach tuberculous soldiers in Army hospitals the best way to fight the disease that has attacked them. His plans for this work have been approved by the Surgeon General of the United States, and Army doctors will co-operate with him. His first stop in a trip that will take him to all parts of the country will be to Oteen, North Carolina, where he will visit United States Hospital for Tuberculosis Patients No. 19 and start the work to which he has been assigned.

Mr. Kidner will advise with doctors, nurses and tuberculosis patients all over the country as to the best way to get sufferers from tuberculosis back on their feet and into positions that will give them a chance to keep well while regaining their economic independence. The work of the National Tuberculosis association and 1000 affiliated state and local associations is financed chiefly by the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals, 630,000,000 of which will be placed on sale during the month of December.

ADVERTISING GETS BUSINESS

"Mr. Van Camp, the baked bean man, put it right when, asked what kind of advertising is most fruitful, he replied that he could not tell, but that what he did know was that when he advertised he got the business, and when he didn't advertise, he didn't get it, and he proposed to keep on advertising."

HARVEST HOME DINNER

Bob O' Link golfers are to enjoy their annual "Harvest Home Dinner and Dance", Saturday evening, October 25. The event is one of the most important of the season at the Highland Park Golf Club and is largely attended by golfers throughout the north shore. Several local players are members of the Bob O' Link club which is closing its fifth season of activity this year.

"GREENS" WIN

Mabel Forberg's "Greens" took the last of a three-game series of volley ball from Florence Fox's "Grays" last week and, as a result, they are undisputed champions of Winnetka avenue and Essex road, a honor which they bid fair to hold.

"A lot of people take the reconstruction period like politics—let somebody else do their thinking for them."
