

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MR. AND MRS. WARREN PEASE, 320 Leicester road, Kenilworth, announce the marriage of their daughter, Agnes Madeleine, to Edwin Everett Sheridan of Evanston, on Saturday, November 29. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock, at the Church of the Holy Comfort. Miss Alice Freeman of Rockford, Illinois, fiancée of Mr. Warren Pease, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the bride's twin sisters, the Misses Beatrice and Florence Pease.

Mr. A. D. Sheridan acted as best man to his son and the ushers were Messrs. Louis C. Seaverns of Lake Forest, Thomas R. Ludlam of Detroit, Andrew E. Colson of Glen Ridge, N. Y., Malcolm Wail of Highland Park, Charles Whitney, Jr., of Evanston and Warren Pease, brother of the bride.

At home cards have been issued for 128 Main street, Evanston, after January 1.

MR. MARIETTA JOHNSON will speak on Thursday, December 11, at 2:30 o'clock at the Winnetka Woman's club on "Character Development in Relation to Willpower". Everyone is cordially invited. Dr. John Dewey of Columbia University has given a chapter in his book "Schools of Tomorrow" to Mrs. Johnson's educational experiment established twelve years ago at Fairhope, Alabama.

Many progressive educators are working along the same lines as Mrs. Johnson, but from no other schools, have boys and girls gone to college who have never known grades and examinations.

Among the patronesses for the appearance of the Yale Glee club on December 22 at Orchestra Hall, are Mesdames James L. Houghteling, George W. Blossom, T. Philip Swift, and Francis Peabody Butler of Winnetka.

Of interest in New Trier circles is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Isabel Wright, daughter of Mrs. Edward P. Reuter of Wilmette, to Denton Hayes of Santa Barbara, Cal., on Saturday morning, November 21. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are taking an extended wedding trip through California, and will make their home in Goleta, a suburb of Santa Barbara.

A nice round sum for Home Missions was cleared at the entertainment and musicale given on Wednesday evening, at Bluff Edge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith in Hubbard Woods. Miss Jennie Johnson, who gave her recital in the drawing room, sang delightfully, and the little playlet entitled "Modes and Manners", presented by local talent, proved most entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams, 873 Oak street, had as their guests on Thanksgiving Day, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stevens and family of Chicago, formerly of Winnetka. The following day Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Barber of Chicago, also former residents of this village, were the guests at the Adams home.

Mr. E. E. Adams and son, A. L. Adams, returned Wednesday from a few days' hunting trip near Champaign, Ill. Mr. Harley Cazel and daughter, Lenla, accompanied them, and will be the week-end guests at the Adams home.

The Winnetka Woman's club considers the matter of raising funds for the Silver Jubilee Extension fund at the January business meeting, which falls on the third Tuesday of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oldfather, 397 Linden street, and Mrs. L. C. Norton, 370 Walnut street, attended the banquet and annual meeting of the City Missionary society held last Tuesday evening in the Stevens building.

Miss Adelaide Murphy, 990 Fig street is spending a fortnight visiting in Detroit, Mich. The Misses Catherine and Rose Murphy returned Monday from St. Louis, where they spent Thanksgiving and the week-end.

Mrs. John R. Leonard of Winnetka has returned from a visit to her daughter Mary Elizabeth Leonard, who is a sophomore at Wellesley, and has made the Glee club, as well as her numerals as a member of the hockey team.

Mrs. Florence S. Capron and Mrs. A. D. Capron have returned from Manchester, N. H., and are spending the winter in Chicago at 5552 Kenwood avenue.

The East Willow Street Circle will meet with Mrs. Marc Newman, 519 Willow street, on Tuesday afternoon, December 9. Mrs. Sylvan Hirschberg will be the assisting hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Feckheimer, 822 Bryant avenue, have altered their surname and hereafter are to be known as Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McClan Bell and family, formerly of 964 North avenue, have returned from New York, where they have been making their home for the past year, and are living at 369 Ridge avenue.

Mrs. W. B. Lieber and son, Maurice of Canton, Ohio, were the guests for a few days early this week of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 988 Elm street.

The Friday Evening club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reach, 844 Prospect avenue on Monday evening, December 8.

The North Shore Dancing club will hold a dancing party at the Winnetka Woman's club on Saturday evening, December 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bruderlin have sold their home on Willow street and will spend the winter in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Post, 475 Maple avenue, have returned from a month's stay at Virginia Hot Springs.

The Rosewood Avenue Circle will meet with Mrs. R. Johnson, 997 Vine street, on Tuesday, December 9 at 2 o'clock.

The winter club gave another of its series of dancing parties on Tuesday evening at the Winnetka Woman's club.

One of the Thursday Luncheon and Bridge clubs will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Charles N. Reese, 727 Forest avenue.

The Illinois Council of the Parent-Teacher association held open house from 2 to 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the Jolly Tar club of Waukegan, to celebrate the addition of a new wing to the club's quarters.

Every Ford Owner Should Know

Just what Ford service is, and why it is different from ordinary garage service. The Ford Dealer is a part of the Big Ford Family. He carries a large stock of genuine Ford parts for repairs and replacements, and he uses only genuine parts because he knows the imitation parts aren't dependable.

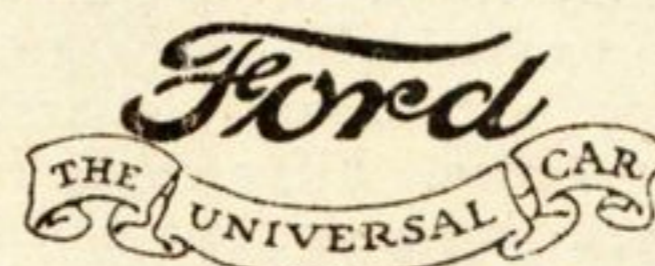

He has a thoroughly-equipped, up-to-the-minute garage with tools that enable his Ford mechanics to efficiently and properly make any repair—from a minor adjustment to a complete overhaul.

Now, we are Authorized Ford Dealers—a part of the great Ford Service organization which was formed chiefly to put within each community a dealer who would have more than a passing interest in Ford repairs and adjustments. Drive in or phone and we'll come for your car.
