200 CARS SOLD IN YEAR; 1400 REPAIR JOBS SINCE MARCH

It is now the Gage Motor Sales Co. Benjamin Gage and his associates having bought out C. E. Bridges' interest in the automobile firm of Bridges & Gage, have now changed the name of the concern.

At what is usually the dull period of the year, this concern is continuing to add mechanics to its force in the service station. Already there are fourteen men working there and the expectation is that by the time the 1920 season has started in full swing there will be twenty men employed.

A telephone switchboard is being installed in order to take care of the business better, and other improvements are being added.

In reviewing the past year's business, Mr. Gage reported today that the firm and its predecessor sold 200 automobiles in the year 1919.

The records show that 1,400 repair jobs went through the service station since last March.

AUTOMOBILE SALES NOW OWN BUSINESS OF L. J. SHERLAND CO.

What for years has been the salesroom of the Louis J. Sherland Co. is now occupied by the Automobile Sales, which has bought out Mr. Sherland's business. Mr. Sherland plans to go with the General Motors to Michigan avenue and sell the Dorris.

The Automobile Sales has for its officers, W. D. Stearnes, president; W. L. Laughlin, vice president, and A. B. Clayton, secretary-treasurer. It is selling the Chandler, Cleveland and Stephens Salient Six cars.

Sherland's old office and service station staff remains intact, with Mrs. Gordon in charge of the office and Billy Fry in charge of the service station.

A GYPSY SMITH STORY

Gypsy Smith, the evangelist, said on his recent voyage from Liverpool: "There are some men who can make a success even of failure. Thus there was a certain peer once who rose to make his maiden speech—a speech granting to all accused persons the right of counsel—and when he put his hand in his pocket for his notes they weren't there. The peer gulped. He looked about him wildly. Gulped again. Then he said: 'If I, my lords, who now rise only to give my opinion on this bill—if I am so confounded that I am unable to express what I had in mind, what must be the condition of that man who, without any assistance, has got to plead for his life?' Then the peer sat down to the cheers of a converted chamber, and his bill passed almost unanimously."

Miss Passe (playfully)—I'm older than you think I am. Mr. Blunt—I doubt it.—Boston Transcript.
