

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

THE teachers of the Winnetka Public schools, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association, will give two short plays, followed by a dance on Friday evening, February 13, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Winnetka Woman's club. Elaborate preparations are being made and the rehearsals are great fun under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Laird Bell. During the intermission between the plays, there will be some original vaudeville stunts. All those taking part in the plays and vaudeville will be members of the faculty, Superintendent Washburne among the number. After the plays a cotillion will be danced, led by Mr. N. H. Blatchford, Jr., and Mr. John Reilly, and the teachers have made some most attractive favors. Refreshments will be served and the music promised is unusually good. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. William Elliott and Mrs. Charles Howells Coffin.

"A Pretty Piece of Business," is the title of one of the two plays to be presented and is composed of the following cast:

No Ford Display at Shows

Why? Because Ford does not change models each year. The present Ford car is practically perfect and the output is always sold many months in advance. Automobile shows are held primarily in the interest of those whose product is difficult to sell.

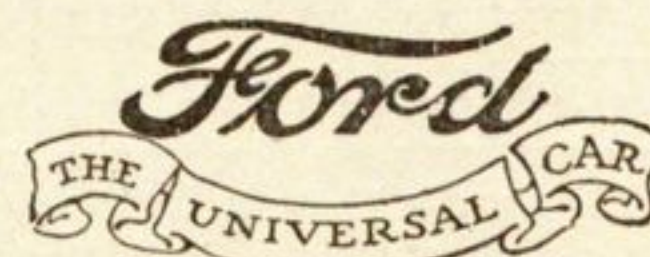

Did you realize the following facts? Ford produced his present car 12 years ago, and altho his is the largest, most efficient corps of engineers in the automobile world, they have not been able to materially improve upon the original, and none of the others have so far been able to equal it.

Why should Ford display at a Show?
