

YANKS TRIM TIGERS FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT

Batteries Switched But Poor Support for Flossie and Heavy Batting of Yanks Prove Too Much for Junglers

THE PIRATES WIN AGAIN

Tumble Indians 16-7; Pete Lucchesi Hurls Splendid Game To Defeat Cazel Aggregation

The Pirates tumbled the Indians for the second time in four weeks Wednesday evening 16-7 at Community House and shortly after the Yankees won their second victory from the Tigers for their fourth straight win 15-14 in a game replete with thrills.

The Buccaneers began early to hammer Nash Cazel and take advantage of his walks. At the end of the second period they led 6-1 and were never headed off as they continued each inning to add at least two runs.

Pete Lucchesi pitched wonderful ball for the victors holding the Redskins to 8 hits and one free ticket. He fanned 12 of the men who faced him in six innings. He held the pitching edge over his opponent, Nash Cazel, who walked six men, whiffed eight and was clubbed for ten hits.

The second game between the Tigers and Yanks was a bitter struggle between Charlie Dehmow, now hurling for the team who emerged victors, and Flossie Voltz who had been traded to the Tigers along with Gutekunst.

It seemed queer for Flossie to labor without the sterling backing he is so used to, while Charlie seemed to be overcome at times by the brilliancy of his support. Just when he thought the could stand the surprise no longer Mert Richardson, his shortstop de luxe who had just bawled out several mates for poor playing, dropped a pop fly and showed Charlie that he was still on Mother Earth and not in the Players' Paradise.

"Sonny" Albright must have read Mutt and Jeff last Sunday. At any rate he had a good imagination; so good, that at times he imagined he was a squirrel and tried to climb the handball backstop at third base for flies. Another time he imagined he was diving for pearls off some rock-bound coast and slid on his stomach as the result of diving for a foul tip in Wally Dehmow's territory.

But to get back to the game itself. The Yanks were leading 12-5 at the end of the third spasm but the Tigers, led by Goody and Voltz began to collect basehits to the chagrin of Charlie Dehmows and the joy of the spectators who were rooting for the Junglers. The result was a tie at 12-12 at the end of the fifth and 14-14 at the end of the sixth.

Kassner scored the winning run for the leaders in the seventh inning after reaching first on a base on balls. A sacrifice hit, and a one-base slam were all that was necessary to help him complete the circuit.

In their half of the same stanza John Dethloff opened for the Tigers with a single and took second several minutes later on an error. The Yank hurler tightened up, saw the beseeching eyes of femininity in the audience and promptly fanned Reschke and McDougal. "Vernie" Eckart then hit safely but John attempted to go home on the blow and the result was a putout at home, Deily to W. Dehmow.

The hero of the Yanks was Seigle in left field who nipped three Tigers rallies in the bud by pulling down flies in his territory. Two of them difficult to handle. The second time he did the "hero act" he started a triple play which brought him heaps of applause.

Next Wednesday will witness a meeting between the Yankees and Pirates at 7:30. The battle is expected to be just as bloodthirsty as the names of the teams imply. The term "Yankee" is mild but the players make up for the mildness of the name by being wild during the game. The Indians and Tigers will resume their fight for last place at 9:00 o'clock.

Standing of teams:

	W.	L.	Ptc.
Yankees	4	0	1.000
Pirates	2	2	.500
Tigers	1	3	.225
Indians	1	3	.225
