SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1920

New Experience For The Taxpayer

The government of Illinois is refusing to accept the hold-up prices that have been submitted by contractors for the building of the new roadways throughout the state. It is a new thing in the experience of the taxpayer to see some show of interest in public officials as to how the money collected from him and his fellow sufferers should be spent.

Illinois needs the new roads which it is proposed to build. It is much to be hoped that there will be a disposition on the part of the government to hold out against the payment of the high rate demanded by those who have submitted bids until contractors are convinced that there has come an end to extracting easy money from the public treasury and be encouraged to look for errors in their figures that will admit of a new bid.

That Way Danger Lies

Acting Secretary of State Polk announced that he is going "to stick around and help the President all he can." He was laying out for himself a dangerous program, for that was just exactly what Secretary Lansing did, and it cost him his official head.

President Wilson's long suit is not accepting help in the job of running the country.

PAUL SCHULZE HOME IS SOLD TO H. H. JOHNSON

Beautiful Kenilworth Residence of Baker Is Sold for $37,500—Family To Travel

One of the most important real estate transactions of the week was the sale of the beautiful Paul Schulze home at 158 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, to H. H. Johnson, wealthy oil refiner of Lawrenceville, Ill.

The deal was made through Hill and Wheeler, 401 Linden avenue, Wilmette. The sale price was $37,500. The Schulze home is one of the show places of the north shore. The lot has a 200 foot frontal and is 184 feet deep. Its beautiful landscape features have attracted the attention of scores of visitors. The home itself is of an especially unique and imposing type.

Mr. Schulze, who is president of the baking company which bears his name, has been visiting various spots in Florida, accompanied by his family. The family expects to tour the country for some time before locating permanently, and their departure from the Village will be regretted by a great number of friends on the north shore.

Another deal this week by Hill and Wheeler was the purchase by Grover Hermann, New York City, of the William F. Temple home at 82 Essex road, Winnetka for $25,000, subject to $15,000 encumbrance.

HEATHEN TILL SOIL

Agriculture as an impetus to foreign missions is one of the myriad plans of the Interchurch World movement for the furtherance of the gospel, in distant lands. Tilling the soil is at low ebb among the heathen, announced missionaries from the four corners of the earth at a recent conference in the United States, and the formation of an international association of agricultural missions came as a result. This body, assisted by the Protestant Foreign Mission boards, co-operating and co-ordinating their work with the Interchurch World movement, will establish agricultural missions with trained agriculturalists as instructors. The most modern farming machinery will be installed and the courses, adapted for the native mind, will keep step with the American schools.

Legion Men Discuss Bonus and Training

Post To Write Congressmen Indicating Sanction of Proposed Bill on Military Training

At the regular meeting Tuesday, March 10, of the Winnetka Post of the American Legion, a large crowd of members were present to listen to an interesting talk by Louis P. Cain, in which the speaker declared that the American public at large were expecting great results to be accomplished through the action of the legion in all matters of national importance. He said that the things thus far accomplished had won the honor and respect of the whole country. The talk was of unusual interest and the members felt well satisfied that the speaker for the meeting could not have been better selected.

Following Mr. Cain's talk the members entered into the various games afforded with real zest. Bowling, quoit-pitching, card and chess games and music comprised the entertainment program. In a closely contested quoit-pitching contest, R. I. Orwig won the first prize and R. W. Hardenburg emerged with the second prize.

The formation of a rifle club created much favorable comment and after plans had been outlined in detail, a number of the veterans signed up. The matter of universal military training also came in for much discussion and resulted in all the members being requested to voice their approval of the plan in letters to the congressman from their district. This matter along with that of the Soldier's bonus will be more fully discussed at the next meeting of the local post.

In the indoor game last Sunday at Community House between the local all-Legion team and the Foster Park team of Evanston, the Evanstonians were vanquished by a batting fest in the first inning, resulting in a final score of 9 to 3. The Winnetka team hit the Foster pitcher's offerings to all parts of the gym in the first inning, running up four counters—enough to win the game. The visitors threatened to merge ahead at different periods, but Paul Kreger, pitching for the post, used excellent judgment when in a pinch. After the fifth inning the post team regained their batting eye and the game was safe.

Another game will probably be played tomorrow at the Community House.

TWO CASES OF TYPHOID REPORTED IN TOWNSHIP

Dr. C. O. Schneider, Commissioner of Health, Urges Residents to Maintain former Precautions

That residents of Winnetka and Glencoe can not afford to relax in precautions against disease since the severe part of the winter has passed, is pointed out in a statement yesterday by Commissioner of Health C. O. Schneider.

A review of the health conditions of both communities show that there are still a number of cases of whooping cough, scarlet fever, measles, pneumonia, tuberculosis, etc. "In fact," declared Dr. Schneider, in urging the people to maintain the vigilance that they exercised during the winter, "there is a little bit of everything and it would be unsafe for anyone to become lax at this time."

Two cases of typhoid, the first cases in years in either community, have been reported to Dr. Schneider and investigation of the cases to trace their origin has proven futile.

Miss Emma Enright, 17, 324 Adams street, is confined to her home with a severe case of typhoid, and eight-year old Elizabeth McDowell of 794 Greenwood avenue, has been taken to the Evanston hospital.

Special precautions to check any spread of this latest disease have been taken by the health commissioner.

Dr. Schneider reported six cases of whooping cough in the last week and declared that one of the cases, at least, was traceable to direct carelessness on the part of another family, where the sickness had previously been reported. The commissioner also wished to remind the local residents of the fact that symptoms in whooping cough are not immediately perceptible, so that mild cases of coughing should be closely watched.

RURAL CHURCH PROBLEM

How to meet the problem of the rural churches is a task which is arousing the concern of the General Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist convention. Surveys recently made by representatives of the convention reveal that in some section many of these churches are gradually dying. It was also shown that the outlook for others is far from promising. This is particularly true in the East. In the Western states the need is for the establishment of churches in the hundreds of new communities which are springing up.
