The Winnetka Woman's club is planning an afternoon of original poetry for Thursday afternoon, April 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Everyone who writes poetry whether free verse or otherwise, as well as those who call their poems "only rhymes or jingles" is invited by the Art and Literature committee to produce her especial variety for the club's Spring Poetry day.

The plan is to have each contributor read her own contribution if she will, if not she may select someone to read it for her. Already quite a number of poems are written. Anyone wishing further information may call Mrs. Philip S. Post, chairman, Mrs. Jerome Frank, Mrs. John R. Fletcher, Mrs. Albert M. Kales, Mrs. Frank Rudolph.
