

NORTH SHORE BOYS PLAN
CAMP ROOSEVELT CLUB

Paul Brown and D. J. Worthington of Wilmette Asked To Recruit Local Youths For 1920 Camp

Plans for the organization of a Camp Roosevelt club, to include students of New Trier High school and grammar schools in the township are being formulated by Delwyn J. Worthington, 602 Lake street, and Paul S. Brown, 819 Ashland avenue, both of Wilmette. Brown and Worthington are veterans of the 1919 camp, and at the request of the Camp Roosevelt association, the boys are planning to enlist as many boys in the township as possible to make the trip this year.

In many cities the boys themselves have organized voluntarily and are making long strides toward increasing the attendance from their own city at the 1920 camp which opens July 4. To assist this recruiting and to establish some uniformity of organization, that the clubs may have recognition as a regular high school activity, the association with headquarters in room 1405, 212 West Washington street, Chicago, Ill., offers helpful plans and suggestions. These may be obtained by writing to Capt. F. L. Beals or Capt. John P. Murrish, secretary.

Camp Roosevelt, "the Westpoint of Michigan," located at Muskegon, Mich., is under the supervision of the War Department and in addition to its complete military program and athletics, offers high school courses directed by the Board of Education of Chicago. Capt. Frank L. Beals, U. S. A., a recognized authority on boys and their military training, is commandant and is assisted by regular army officers and non-coms as instructors. Picked high school teachers from the Chicago school have charge of the various accredited courses of the summer high school and athletic directors of the Chicago schools and parks direct the sports and athletic contests. Camp Roosevelt is an authorized Reserve Officers' Training Corps establishment and last summer, many young men who had finished high school attended for its decided military advantages.
