

LIQUOR GANG BROKEN UP BELIEVE POLICE

Conviction of Two and Flight of Two Others Believed to Place Check on Robberies on North Shore

With the arrest of three men and the conviction this week of two of them, a temporary, if not permanent check, in the activities of liquor bandits has been effected, according to the belief of the police of north shore towns.

The three men arrested—John Ruschli, Jacob Steinback and George Mellison, all of Evanston—were apprehended this week and the two former have been held over to the grand jury under $2,000 bonds. The case of Mellison will be heard the first part of next week by Justice D. M. Mickey of Wilmette.

These men, with the exception of Mellison, who is believed to be a novice at the interesting art of burglary, are believed to form the nucleus of the gang which has raided the liquor stores of families in Glencoe, Winnetka, Wilmette, Kenilworth and Evanston. Of the other members of the gang—Walter (Dutch) Schumacker and William (Shrimp) Gidd have fled from the vicinity, and Peter (Hard-boiled) Smith has been apprehended recently by the Evanston police. Although none of the men with the exception of Mellison, will make any statement concerning their activities, the police believe they have secured evidence sufficient to charge them with the burglary of scores of homes in north shore towns.

The three men were arrested following the theft early Saturday morning of choice wines from the home of Charles V. Burghart, 108 Woodbine avenue, Wilmette. After hiding the loot in some shrubbery they were captured by the Evanston police, and after a confession from Mellison had been obtained, they were turned over to the Wilmette authorities, who notified the police of the other villages. The cases of Ruschli and Steinback were disposed of by Justice Mickey and Mellison's hearing will occur next week.

DRAWS NORTH SHORE

North shore residents are showing considerable interest in the series of high class photo plays being presented at the Hoyburn theater, Evanston. Today Eugene O'Brien in "His Wife's Money" will be shown, to be followed tomorrow by "Mary's Ankle," featuring MacLean and May. The program for the following week is equally attractive: Monday and Tuesday, "The Sagebrusher" by Emerson Hough; Wednesday, Elaine Hammerstein, "The Woman Game"; Thursday, "Black is White," starring Dorothy Dalton; Friday, Ethel Clayton in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," and Saturday will be "The Amateur Wife," with Irene Castle. Commencing April 5, "Huckleberry Finn," Mark Twain's wonderful characterization, will be presented.

HORSE AND MOTOR

Even though it may be true that the motor-driven vehicle has begun to put the farm horse "on the run," there is no evidence that he has developed much speed, and his total value still compares favorably with other classes of farm animals. On January 1, 1920, the Bureau of Crop Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture estimated the total value of horses on farms in this country at $1,993,000,000, or just a little below the value of milk cows, which was $2,022,000,000.
