A very simple but most attractive wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening at Christ church, when Miss Mary Eager Lloyd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eager Lloyd, was united in marriage to Theodore S. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox. The ceremony was read at 8:30 o'clock, by Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, rector of Christ church, and assisted by Rev. F. A. Bud'ong of St. Peter's church, Chicago.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed in real old lace, used previously on her mother's wedding dress, and made with a court train. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a tiny wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

The attendants wore simple girlish frocks of organidie, the maid of honor, Miss Katherine Lloyd, being in yellow, the Misses Priscilla McIlvaine of Winnetka, and Blanche Riordan of Flagstaff, Arizona, wearing a pale shade of blue, and the Misses Maude Hinman of Winnetka, and Muriel Wilson of Jacksonville, Fla., pale pink. Large black picture hats, and arm bouquets of mixed sweet peas completed the costumes.

James Weart of Winnetka served Mr. Cox as best man, and the ushers were Donald Smith of Chicago university, Harry McGosh of Chicago, Markham Lorry of Minneapolis, Minn., and Landon Hoyt of Winnetka.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd in Hubbard Woods, followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cox left immediately for their new home in "Mayo-wood" farm in Rochester, Minn.
