TAXI DRIVER INJURED

Earl Wood, driver for the B. F. France Taxi and North Shore Livery company, was in the Evanston hospital this week suffering cuts and bruises sustained Wednesday when the front tires of a machine he was driving "blew" simultaneously causing the car to turn turtle. Wood was found unconscious and rushed to the hospital in the local Boy Scout ambulance. He returned from the hospital later in the week. He was not seriously injured. The accident occurred near the Country Day school. There were no passengers in the machine at the time of the mishap.
