Head New Concern

Peter N. Jans is President of Oakland-Phillips Motor Co., Organized in Evanston

The Oakland-Phillips Motor Co., which recently purchased the Evanston theater building on Sherman avenue near Davis street, have opened temporary sales and service rooms at 1017 Davis street, Evanston.

Peter N. Jans, who is heading the new north shore organization, is well known on the north shore. He organized the Evanston Community Recreation association and is much interested in public endeavors throughout the north shore. Mr. Jans is a director of the Cook County Municipal Golf association as well as a director of the Chicago Automobile -Golf association. He is a member of the Evanston lodge of Elks N. 1316, the Newman Council, Knights of Columbus, and the Y. M. C. A.

Edward R. Bell, in charge of the service department was recently connected with Stenman's garage at 724 Elm street, Winnetka. Previous to his connection with the Stenman garage he was with the Winnetka Motor Co., and his host of motor friends are glad to know of his advancement to the head of the service department of the new north shore firm.

Mr. Bell and Mr. Jans are men of character and it is a pleasure know that these young men are to represent the General Motors corporation interests on the north shore. Mr. Bell gives promise of the utmost in service.

LOOP HOLES

The new German government will claim all the rights to which the German people are entitled but it won't be bound by the peace treaty since it didn't sign it.
