SWEET TEMPER!

When the baseball from the kid games comes in through the kitchen window you can at least be sure the gang isn't standing on the curbstones spitting into the gutter.

EVANSTON NORTH ENDS ORGANIZE BALL TEAM

With the background of a successful football season behind them, the North Ends of Evanston have organized a baseball nine for the coming season. This is the first year the team has competed on the diamond. The team is collecting an all-star cast of North End men and expects to schedule a series of games with north shore and Chicago teams.

The pitching staff will consist of Clarence Schoen and "Bunny" Burden, while the receiving end will be handled by Ed Gensch and S. Solheim. The infield candidates are Schultz, Rose, Solheim, and Lawson and the outfield are Hayden, Daley, Anderson and Olson. The opening game will be played the latter part of April.

SEEK FORMER JUSTICE

North shore police were asked this week to search for Harry L. Bartlett, former Evanston justice of the peace, who disappeared from his home in Evanston on Friday of last week. A mysterious telephone message received at the Bartlett residence early this week indicated he was in a Chicago hospital following a brawl over politics. The message was thought to have been fictitious. Bartlett had not been found late this week.

WOULD ORGANIZE FLAGMEN

Applications were distributed this week among flagmen of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Electric railway asking the men to organize as a gatemens' union of the Brotherhood of railroad men. It was hinted, also, that the women ticket agents of the road contemplated organization for mutual benefit.

The new small hats beg for a veil and look lonely without one, and that's the why of these chenille dotted ones.
