

Philip S. Post, Leader in Winnetka Civic Affairs, Succumbs to Illness

Philip Sidney Post, 475 Maple avenue, vice president of the International Harvester company, died Sunday, June 27, at his home. Mr. Post was the son of General Philip Sidney Post, a distinguished officer in the union army. Gen. Post was wounded in the battle of Nashville. After the war he was appointed consul general at Vienna, and there Philip was born in 1869.

Knox Graduate

After thirteen years, Gen. Post returned to his home in Galesburg, Ill., and was soon after elected to congress. Philip, after graduating from Knox college in 1887, studied law at Washington and worked as a newspaper correspondent and as a private secretary to his father and several other members of congress.

The son began law practice at Galesburg in 1895. He was county judge of Knox county and later master-in-chancery of the Circuit court. He moved to Chicago in 1907. In 1910 he was appointed general attorney for the Harvester company, and after eleven years was elected to a vice presidency.

Leading Club Man

Judge Post was a member of the Loyal Legion, the American and Illinois Bar associations, the Union league, the University, Hamilton, City, and Law clubs.

He is survived by his widow, a sister, Mrs. James C. Simpson of Galesburg, and a brother, Major W. S. Post of Los Angeles.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Galesburg, Ill., his old home, at 2:30 o'clock. At his residence in Winnetka Monday the Rev. James Austin Richards conducted a simple service, attended by Mr. Post's intimate friends in Winnetka and Chicago and immediate associates in the Harvester organization. Among the latter were the company's principal executive officers. The pallbearers were:

Edgar A. Bancroft, Henry B. Fuller, A. A. McCormick, Henry P. Crowell, Victor Elting, John W. Scott, William R. Sidley, William S. Elliott.

Honorary pallbearers:

Cyrus H. McCormick, H. B. Utley, John P. Wilson, W. M. Reay, Harold F. McCormick, Cyrus McCormick, Jr., Frank I. Moulton, Alex Legge, William D. McHugh, Heyliger deWindt, Samuel D. Snow, William A. Otis, Ernest S. Simpson, Horace T. Tenney, Arthur H. Young, August Magnue, W. M. Gale, Roy Durham, A. B. Keller, F. H. Perkins, Nelson Willard, George A. Ranney, John E. MacLeish, A. E. McKinstry.

Leader in Village

In addition to his activities in Chicago Mr. Post devoted much of his time in active participation in Winnetka civic affairs. His advice was sought upon every problem of importance facing the village. He was particularly active in Winnetka Men's club circles having been at one time president of the organization.

Mr. Post was taken ill as a direct result of strenuous activity at the Republican National convention in Chicago. He became seriously ill a fortnight before his death. His passing was a distinct shock to his host of friends and acquaintances in the village.

Several Winnetka families attended the sixth annual Master Steam Fitters' association picnic on Wednesday, at Ravinia Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis and family of 1080 Private road, left this week for their summer cottage at Hamlin Lake, Mich.
