

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

WITH the exception of Monday evening when a concert is given by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, opera is given every evening at Ravinia Park at 8:15 o'clock. Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, beginning at 3 o'clock, the orchestra will give a concert. On Thursday afternoons the orchestra gives the first half of the program in connection with the program especially prepared for the children.

On Saturday night, July 3, the "Barber of Seville" will be given with Charles Hackett as Count Almaviva. On Sunday, "Aida" with Florence Easton, Alice Gentle and Morgan Kingston in the leading roles.

On Thursday afternoon, July 8, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, the Children's afternoon program will open with Community singing led by Miss Florence Crane who is well known along the north shore for her pleasing and constructive work she has done with the children. Mr. and Mrs. Marx Oberndorf will give an interpretation of the musical numbers to be played by the Chicago Symphony orchestra that afternoon. Mrs. Oberndorf (Anne Shaw Faulkner) was the originator of this form of advance musical information for the listener and was for many years the director of the Program Study classes of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, conducting classes for both children and adults. The talks will be illustrated at the piano. To have the privilege of giving our children the very best instruction and illustration to be had in this form of music and then to have them hear it ideally interpreted by the Chicago Symphony orchestra under ideal surroundings, is indeed a rare privilege and one of which we hope every mother of growing children living on the north shore, will avail themselves. All children under 14 years of age will be admitted free to the Park on Thursday afternoons, and no charge will be made to children or adults for reserved seats in the pavillion. The last half of the program we are to have "The Story Lady", Miss Georgene Faulkner, in beautiful Greek costume, tell the story of Persephone, and she will be accompanied by Mr. Francis A. Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Herbert Kimbark, of the Hotel Moraine, Highland Park, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Perry, to Mr. Henry Coleman Crowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Crowell, 770 Humboldt avenue.

The wedding took place Thursday evening, June 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene U. Kimbark, 1015 Hinman avenue, Evanston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edgar P. Hill of New York City, and was attended by relatives and a few friends.

Mrs. Edgar R. Hill, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Florence Lockwood of Eau Claire, Wis., and Miss Harriet Lowden of Springfield, were bridesmaids. Miss Barbara Kimball of Ogden, Utah, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. Mr. Woodward Allen of Chatham, N. J., was best man.

The ushers were Mr. Harry Kimbark, Mr. Donald Kimbark, and Mr. John Kimbark, cousins of the bride.

Of interest on the north shore is the announcement of the engagement of Frank Farwell Ferry of Lake Forest, and Mrs. Deborah Sayles Hill of Pawtucket, R. I. The wedding has been set for July 28, at the home of the bride prospective's brother, Robert W. Sayles of Chatham, in the Cape Cod region. Mr. Ferry has purchased the George R. Thorne home in Winnetka, and upon their return from a honeymoon trip they will reside there.

Mrs. L. R. Fink of Kenosha, and Mrs. Luther Uglow of Palmyra, Wis., were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 985 Elm street. Mrs. Fink and Mrs. Lieber are sisters.

The East Willow Street Circle entertained with a reception for new neighbors on Friday evening of last week, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. William G. Forrest. The guests included the husbands of the members and the new members who have recently moved into the neighborhood, Rev. Gerhard and Rev. Richards, and the general chairmen of the circles.

The musical program consisted of a piano duet by the Misses Fisher and Norton; vocal solos by Miss Mary Meyer and Mrs. Guy Windes, and community singing in charge of Mrs. P. B. Kohlsaat, with Mrs. Dean at the piano.

Mrs. H. Spaulding Coffin of Indian Hill road, left Thursday for a three weeks outing in northern Wisconsin, before going east for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dickenson and family, 790 Prospect avenue, left this week to spend their summer at their cottage at State Line, in Wisconsin.

Elaborate plans are being made by the village and groups from the various clubs for the street dance to be held on Monday evening of next week, as a fitting close to the numerous activities planned in celebration of Independence Day. A large band has been engaged to furnish good music, and the dancing will take place on Cedar street, between Oak and Elm streets. This street is paved with asphalt, following the races.

With clement weather, this affair promises to be one of the most elaborate on record in the past fifty years.

Mrs. Dwight P. Green, 797 Pine street, left Tuesday for Mackinaw, Mich, where she is attending the National convention of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, as a delegate from the Chicago association.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shoemaker and children of Hubbard Woods are spending the summer at Wiano, Cape Cod, Mass.

Miss Louisa May Greeley has returned from the east to take charge of the second season of the Camp-at-Home Recreation school with Miss Doris Wardner of the University of Michigan. The Senior class starts activities at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, July 6. The Juniors begin Wednesday, July 7, at 9 o'clock. This year plans are made to hike, swim, dance and play through the month of July only.

The Hawthorn Lane Circle held the first of a series of informal all-day picnics on Monday of this week. Mrs. W. R. English was hostess and the affair was held on her lawn at the corner of Hawthorn lane and Sheridan road.

Mrs. G. Dean Owsley and small son will arrive next week from France, where Mrs. Owsley spent the winter with her parents. Mr. Owsley will meet them in New York, and they will return to Winnetka for the summer.
