TRUCK PNEUMATICS

DO NOT PUNCTURE

One phase of the use of pneumatic truck tires which has worried the truck owner to no small degree is the possibility of punctures.

"Regarding punctures", says W. V. Logan, manager of the pneumatic truck tire department of the United States Tire company, "our records show that an owner need not have a moment's worry about them. I have records of trucks operated in practically every class of business, showing that pneumatic truck tires have been in service anywhere from one year to two and one-half years, and during the entire time have never been off the rims."

"The rural free delivery division of the United States Post Office department operates a fleet of trucks on pneumatics that is probably larger than any other in the country. They have had so few punctures that they no longer believe it necessary to carry spares."

"As for mileage, I find in our records reports on set after set of tires which have rendered better than 20,000 miles. We have records through the United States in practically every class of service of from 10,000 to 50,000 miles, and those of 40,000 to 50,000 were in extremely hard service. The United States Nobby Cord pneumatic is especially adapted for rough or muddy roads where good traction is essential."

WIRELESS OPERATORS PLAN BIG SHIP STRIKE

London.—Marine wireless operators have handed an ultimatum to the Marconi company announcing that they will call a sea-wide strike unless their wage claims filed in September, 1919, are met.

In their declaration the operators apologize to passengers for depriving them of safety in the event of a strike.

U. S. CHANGES NAME OF FORT SHERIDAN HOSPITAL

The Fort Sheridan hospital, known as the United States Army General hospital No. 28, will in the future be called the Lovell General hospital. An order changing the name of the hospital was received this week. The hospital is named in honor of Surgeon Gen. Joseph Lovell, who was commander of the medical corps of the United States army from 1818 to 1836.
