

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

ANOTHER debutante is to be accorded the distinction of being introduced to society in the "good old summer time," which veers rather wide of the long-established precedent of our young girls making their bows in the autumn.

Miss Katharine Kay Strotz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Strotz of 365 Sheridan road, will be presented Saturday, July 24, at a garden party to be given by her parents, for which 500 invitations have been issued.

"Casa de Usted" is one of the most attractive spots along the north shore. The hours are from 4 to 7 o'clock. Japanese lanterns will be strung all about the place, buffet refreshments served, and there will be dancing in the evening on the outdoor platform.

A very lovely wedding is to be solemnized on Tuesday evening of next week in Marinette, Wisconsin, when Miss Marcella Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of the North Shore hotel, Evanston, will be united in marriage to Kenyon Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pope, of Wilmette. The service will be read in the Oakwood Beach clubhouse, connecting with a group of summer cottages overlooking Green Bay, and is to be followed by a reception.

Miss Margaret Mariner of Menominee, Mich., will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Dr. Donald M. Gallie, Jr., of Wilmette, will serve Mr. Pope as best man.

A group of north shore folks are planning to leave Monday for Marinette, to attend the wedding, among them, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pope, Miss Ruth Moulding, Miss Margaret Scheidenhelm, Miss Marion Goodsmith of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Badger of Evanston.

Upon their return from an extended honeymoon trip, the young couple will make their home in Evanston.

The New Trier Horticultural society held a Flower Show at the Winnetka Community House on July 1. The object of the show was chiefly to exhibit sweet peas, but entrance and collection of Annuals and Perennials were also admitted.

Mr. D. McNaughton of Lake Forest won the Elliot Trophy which was awarded for the best collection of sweet peas. Mrs. Charles Elliot won first prize for the twelve best vases of sweet peas exhibit. Mrs. Charles N. Strotz won first prize for the finest collection of Annual and first prize for the finest collection of Perennials. Mrs. Albert Pick won first prize for the best vase of roses and of Candidum Lillies. Mrs. Watson and Mrs. W. B. Hale received special mention for their display of flowers. Mrs. Hale also received special mention for her display of vegetables.

The big Flower Show of the season will be held at Community House on July 29, from 2 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Fleming, of 206 Fairview road, have recently returned to their home in Glencoe after a year's stay in Washington. Mr. Fleming was director for the Congressional Joint Commission on Reclassification of Salaries, which turned in a comprehensive report classifying the positions of the one hundred thousand civilian employees of the government at Washington and recommending standard salary schedules. Mr. Fleming was one of the authors of this report, which included a comprehensive industrial relations policy for the government. Since his return Mr. Fleming has become a member of the staff of the Bureau of Commercial Economics, Inc., industrial engineers and personnel advisors, with offices in the Peoples Gas building, Chicago. He is specializing on the industrial relations problems of large corporations.

St. Joseph's church, Gross Point, will be the scene of an attractive wedding on Wednesday morning of next week, when Miss Florence Regene Ustick will be united in marriage to Paul Frailey of East St. Louis, Ill. The ceremony will be performed at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father Netstraeter. The bridal couple will have as their attendants, Miss Irene Ustick and Mr. Raymond Ustick, sister and brother of the bride. Following the service a wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ustick, in Wilmette.

Mr. Stanley Clague, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice Clague of 844 Willow street, left Wednesday for New York City, where they will be the guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Daniel Gale. Later Miss Clague will go on to Augusta, Maine, to be with friends, and before her return will also visit in Barnardston, Mass. Mr. Clague will go down to Asheville, N. C., for a short stay.

Miss Jean Alton, of 577 Cherry street, is leaving next Tuesday to spend some time visiting in Rochester, N. Y. Later she will join the Hinman family at Mount Morris, N. Y.

Mrs. Ann Rogers of 835 Linden avenue, Hubbard Woods, announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Rogers Burright, to William Herst Gruver, on Monday, July 12, at 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Gruver was formerly a resident of Wilmette. The ceremony was performed by Dr. George P. Magill of the Wilmette Presbyterian church.

W. Harlan Ware, 922 Cherry street, who was with the Clare Vaughan Wales players in "Too Much Business" returned to his home last week from Albert Lea, Minn., where the company was filling an engagement. Severe illness made it necessary for Mr. Ware to return, giving up his summer engagement.

Miss L. F. Smith of New York City is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Fred L. Kriebel, 695 Lincoln avenue. Miss Margaret Mercer will return Monday from a fortnight's visit at the home of Mrs. Pillsbury in Minneapolis, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Strotz have come back from their honeymoon and are at the Blackstone temporarily. Mrs. Strotz was Eugenia Vandeyeer of Taylorville, Ill., and sister of Mrs. Frederick W. Perkins, 33 Bellevue place, Chicago.

Mrs. L. M. Hamburger and daughters of 502 Willow street, accompanied by Mrs. Weil and Miss Helen Weil, left Tuesday to spend the remainder of the summer at Grand Haven, Mich.

Mrs. Francis Peabody Butler and children, 777 Bryant avenue, are at Hyannisport, for the late season. Mr. Butler is with his mother, Mrs. Hermon B. Butler, during his wife's absence.

Mrs. George J. Farnsworth of Hubbard Woods, was one of a group of women from Winnetka and Lake Forest who motored to Chicago on Thursday for luncheon at the Chicago Athletic club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McGuire, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth McGuire of Glencoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Butler and family of Hubbard Woods, are summering at Charlevoix, Mich.

Miss Ruth Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward of Kenilworth, has gone from the ratta races at Cornell to Caledonia, Va., to visit Miss Grace Davidson.

Every Tuesday, beginning on July 20, will be Ladies' Day at the Winnetka Playfield; tea will be served in the afternoon. Every woman in Winnetka who is interested is invited to participate in the events planned for these occasions.

Mrs. William McKinney and daughter, Katherine, of 605 Cherry street, are planning to leave on August 1 for an extended eastern visit, stopping in Boston, New York and in Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reach of 844 Prospect avenue, have returned from an extended vacation at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hinman and family of 576 Oak street, will leave Tuesday to spend six weeks at Mr. Hinman's home in Mount Morris, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wissman have returned from an extended wedding trip through northern Wisconsin. Mrs. Wissman was formerly Miss Harriot Salveson.

Mrs. Robert Crane, formerly of Winnetka, who spent the winter in Pasadena, Cal., is in Hessel, Mich., for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Weinstock, 891 Spruce street, announce the arrival of a son, John Edward, Jr., on July 10, at the Evanston hospital.

Mrs. Arthur F. Durand of 1168 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, is spending the summer at Lakeside, Mich.

There will be a dinner dance at Bob O'Link this evening.
