Prouty Voyagers Hit Shoals; Try, Try, Etc.

Carlton Prouty and Son Richard Navigate in "Water Gypsy" Up Fox River

Spurred on by their failure of last year, Carlton Prouty and his ten year old son Richard last week made a second attempt to reach the head-water of the Fox river by boat.

The start was made at the Prouty summer home, three miles south of McHenry, Illinois. Last year the voyagers, using a light rowboat with sail, reached a point ten miles south of Burlington, Wis., where low water prevented further progress. This year, in the "Water Gypsy", a sailing duck-boat especially designed and equipped to navigate shoal water, the Proutys succeeded in reaching Rochester, Wis., a distance of distance of sixty miles from the starting point. Here the river shoaled to an average depth of five inches, and the gypsy, lacking wheels, was forced to turn her nose homeward. The trip lasted six days and the party camped at night on the river bank.

Another attempt will be made next year, during the crest of the June high water, to reach the source of the Fox river, at Pewaukee Lake, Wisconsin. This point is forty miles beyond the turning point of this year's trip.

WINNETKA NEWS AGENCY

Thomas H. Bailey, formerly manager of the Evanston News Company, has purchased the McKay News Agency in Winnetka, it was reported this week. The news company will have headquarters in Duncan's Confectionery at 808 West Elm street. The company will be designated the Winnetka News Agency.

FIRM CHANGES NAME

Announcement was made this week of the change of the name of the automobile sales firm Winnetka Car Sales, to Braun Brothers. The Braun brothers are owners of both the Winnetka Tire Shop and the former Car Sales business.

PAYING AUTO CLAIMS

The Continental Auto Insurance association of Springfield is making a record reputation for paying claims on automobiles insured with them. People are recognizing the fact and are keeping Judge Clark T. Northrop busy writing applications. Don't delay to call and let the Judge explain it to you. It may save time, trouble and loss of money. —Adv. T18-1tc
