

Activities of North Shore Clubs

by Ruth Risley

ON Sunday night, August 8, "La Traviata" will be sung for the first time at Ravinia, and the leading role, almost invariably sung by a coloratura soprano, will be taken by Mme. Easton. Charles Hackett will sing the tenor role, Miss Kent and Ananian being other members of the cast.

Continuing his policy of maintaining an interesting repertoire for the season, Mr. Eckstein announces for the near future "Don Pasquale," with Mr. Hackett and Vittorio Trevisan in the cast; "Martha," with Mme. Mason; "Romeo and Juliet," with Mr. Hackett and Mme. Mason, and "Zaza," with Mme. Easton in the title role. Antonio Scotti will return soon to the Ravinia company and will be heard in other performances of "L'Oracolo" and "Tosca," as well as in several new roles.

The usual children's day, Thursday afternoon, was celebrated this week under the guise of a wild flower carnival. The plans embraced a processional and pageant under the direction of Miss Bertha Iles, followed by a play, "The Lesson of the Wild Flowers," the work of Mrs. Charles Millspaugh, who was present at the performance.

More than 4,000 children took part in the carnival, costumed variously as flowers, birds, and fairies. There was no orchestral concert on that day. All children under the age of 14 years were admitted without charge.

Thursday evening "Thais" was repeated, with Mme. Mason, Rother, Miss Kent, and Paltrinieri in the leading roles. Hageman conducted.

Miss Emily Larned of Winnetka is holding the fort with Mrs. Lambert O. Wile at the Republican headquarters, 411 Conway building, Chicago, while Mrs. Jacob Baur is in Europe, and Mrs. Joseph Coleman is summering at El Mirasol, Santa Barbara, Cal.

Miss Larned will be remembered by many as the staunch and successful advocate of the motor busses when they were seeking a foothold in Chicago. So identified was she with their fate that it was suggested that they be called "Emilybusses". She has a genius as a publicity agent for any cause which she espouses. During and before the recent Republican convention she was an ardent Hoover advocate. Today, however, she is as enthusiastic a supporter of Harding as she was formerly of Hoover.

To her came the idea of a rubber stamp, which should at the same time be a source of revenue for the Republican ways and means committee, and an agent of publicity for her candidate. This stamp bears the inspiring words: "I am a Harding Republican". Not a Hoover or any other kind of Republican, but the genuine article.

It is to be applied to every piece of writing that such a Harding Republican sends forth, letters, checks, bills, invitations. It is really a brilliant piece of publicity. Reiteration is the spirit and soul of propaganda. These rubber stamps sell for 25 cents apiece and are distributed in neat little boxes.

There will be a three-day tournament at the Indian Hill Golf club on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The tournament is open to all members of the Women's Western Golf association.

A dinner dance will be given at Indian Hill Saturday evening.

Miss Marjorie Hallen of Winnetka, and Miss Thorne of Winnetka, gave a dinner at the clubhouse Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Thomas C. Dennehy gave a dinner at the club on Tuesday evening for twelve guests. A dance followed at the Dennehy home in Winnetka.

Wednesday morning is Ladies' Golf Day at the Indian Hill club. A special luncheon is served women members of the club.

Luncheon and bridge for women at the club on Friday afternoons is for members and their guests. Saturday afternoon is Men's Day at the club. Luncheon is served.

A summer dance was held at the Ouilmette Country club Thursday evening. The dance was for the members of the club and their guests. Unusual activity at the Country club during the summer months has been most encouraging to the committees this season. Plans are being formulated for opening of the regular season early in the fall and it is predicted the coming year will surpass any in the past in variety of activities. Members have been enjoying the splendid tennis courts through the summer days, there being especial activity in this department during the long evening hours and over the week-ends.

There will be a dinner and bridge party at the North Shore Golf club at 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

A mixed foursome is to be played at the club today at 4:30 o'clock.

Every Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock there is bridge for the women members of the club.

On Thursday afternoon there will be a bridge party for members and their guests at the Lake Shore Country club. There will be a dance on Saturday evening.

While the automobile novices create the most alarm on the road, it is the experienced drivers that figure in the most accidents.
