

Winnetka Man Makes 3,000 Mile Boat Trip

Heads Party on Cruise of Lakes, Into Canadian Waters and Through
"Soo" Waters

Charles A. Kinney of Winnetka, and party returned to Winnetka Tuesday from a seven weeks' motor-boat trip on Mr. Kinney's cruiser, Dream Girl.

The cruise was one of the longest ever undertaken by a small boat, covering nearly 3,000 miles. After visiting places of interest along both shores of Lake Michigan and Green Bay the party pushed on to Mackinac Island and from there to the "Soo" and out on Lake Superior.

Leaving the "Soo" the party entered Canadian waters, traversed the St. Mary's river down through St. Joseph's channel, into North Channel and on to Georgian Bay and the 30,000 island district. Two weeks were spent visiting and exploring the islands, many of which are inhabited by Indians whose ancestors lived there prior to the coming of the white man.

On the return voyage the party crossed Lake Huron and came down Lake Michigan by way of the Beaver and Fox islands.

Accompanying Mr. Kinney were two Highland Park high school boys, Donald and Leon McDonald, James Kerr and "Gyp" Superintendent Washburne's English bull, as mascot.

The party encountered many thrilling experiences aboard ship and while in camp. Upon one occasion they came upon a real, live panther and at another time effected the rescue of the yacht Dolphin, of Milwaukee, which was found drifting helplessly on Lake Michigan. They towed the yacht 65 miles to her home port. "Gyp", the mascot, had some experiences of his own, the most noteworthy being a lively encounter with a porcupine.

Mr. Kinney is in charge of shop work at the Winnetka Public schools.

CAMEO ROOM CONSIDERED THE "WONDER RESTAURANT"

Decorations Are by S. H. Brownell,
Winnetka Artist; Appointments
Complete

The Cameo Room, which has come to be known as the "wonder restaurant of the north shore", operated by the Winnetka Catering company, Keller Brothers and Hales, proprietors, is located at 551 Lincoln avenue, the site of the former Winnetka Tea Room.

Decorations for this beautifully appointed eating place are by S. H. Brownell, Winnetka artist. The restaurant, in its rich and complete appointments, has been adjudged by experts the most complete eating place on the north shore.

Facilities are at hand for providing luncheons and dinners of varied description and the managers are making special arrangements for private parties. There are course luncheons and dinners as well as a la carte service. A visit to the Cameo Room would be well worth while.

WILLIAM REMY, JR., WINS TITLE IN REGATTA RACE

Talk readers will be pleased to hear that William Remy, Jr., resident of Winnetka, won the distinction and title of Master Sailor of the Northwestern Inland Lakes association. In the final Regatta race between Illinois and Wisconsin, held at Delavan Lake, Wisconsin, he won two silver cups.

Winnetka may look forward to a Winnetka Yacht club with William Remy as commodore.

William Remy, Sr., has just completed a mansion on Sunset road fronting a ransy park which was dedicated by him to the village. He is a descendant of the Remy's of Huguenot fame dating back to 1562 when the family fled from France.

NOVELTY DANCE

The main spectacle at the Jazz-Bo dance to be given by the Jazz-Bo Five at the Jazz-Bo hall (Gross Point village hall) on Jazz-Bo night, Tuesday evening, September 21, will be a sprinkling of Jazz-Bo ties among the male dancers present. The members of the orchestra will also be adorned with the same brand of neckwear which will add novelty to the occasion.

Some people are finding that the more folks they put to work, the less of a product the bunch can turn out.

WINS TABLE LAMP

Mrs. Frank Meyer is the possessor of a beautiful table lamp won at the St. Joseph's church bazaar Monday at Gross Point grove. The lamp was donated by Frank L. Smith, candidate for United States senator from Illinois.
