STATE JURISTS ENDORSE CANDIDACY OF C. W. VAIL

The candidacy of Charles W. Vail for reelection as clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court, possesses the merit of the unqualified endorsement of the justices of the Supreme Court.

The state jurists have given voluntary expression to the "highly efficient manner in which that office has been administered by Charles W. Vail, the present incumbent". Mr. Vail is known on the north shore as the brother of Edwin E. Vail of Winnetka, an official of the Harding-Coolidge National Republican club of New Trier township. Mr. Vail, whose headquarters are at the Hamilton club, Chicago, has been a frequent visitor on the north shore.

Do You Realize that the Thompson-Tammany platform commits Thompson's candidates for state offices to Take from the farmer every dollar by which his land increased in value since the World War started?

Confiscate property of every business man and farmer?

Increase the rent of every City and Farm tenant in the state?

Strike at every home buyer and home owner in Illinois?

To prove this read the Thompson platform.

Stop and Think of Chicago's pitiful plight under Thompson's Tammany domination:

The City Treasury bankrupt.

Taxes increased and the proceeds dissipated.

Enormous fees paid to favorites.

Undue privileges accorded heelers.

Contracts awarded at fat prices to henchmen.
