

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MISS Caroline de Windt, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt, will be presented to society at a large afternoon reception, Saturday, September 25, at "Ingleside", the de Windt family residence in Winnetka. Beautiful trees and spacious lawns, that stretch from Sheridan road to the lake, make an ideal setting for a fete champetre. Miss de Windt has spent the last four years at Farmington, Conn., and many of the young ladies who will assist were her schoolmates.

After the reception there will be a dinner for about fifty young people and after that dancing in Bluff cottage, a charming bungalow with broad piazzas to supplement the floor of the living room for the gay dancers. This addition to the delightful, old-fashioned New England-like house, is built on the brow of the forty foot bluff that looks out over the lake. If the weather man will only "be good", Carol de Windt's coming out reception ought to be one of the smartest affairs of the season, and in order to have "no hitch" and to use every possible "pull", with "the weather man", we understand that every member of the family of Prof. Henry J. Cox will receive an invitation.

Among the young women who will assist are the Misses Jean Alton, Grace Andrews, Margaret Barnes, Alice Boak, Helen Davis, Mary Dennehey, Marjorie Farwell, Josephine Faxon, Olivia Fentress, Dorothy Flood, Elizabeth Greeley, Mary Elizabeth Leonard, Dorothy Magie, Elizabeth Prindville, Catherine Rehm, Alice Bodiger, Betty Scott, Jane Thorp, Louise Voltz, Dolly Walker, and Caroline and Helen Willits.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Frances Langworthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, 832 Bryant avenue, to Donald Bain Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murray, of River Forest, on Saturday, September 4. After a wedding journey in the north Mr. and Mrs. Murray will live in Winnetka.

September is the last month for the Winnetka Recreational driving. Mrs. Arthur Mitchell is chairman for this month. It is not easy to fill our quota of cars and it would help the chairman if anyone who has not loaned her car this season would communicate with her, Winnetka 1463.

The Civics committee of the Winnetka Woman's club under whose direction this work has been done this year, wishes to thank all who so graciously have given their time, service and cars for this important work. Many expressions of thanks have come from the men at Fort Sheridan, whom we have been helping. We may close our season's work with a feeling of satisfaction that we have had the privilege of making life a little brighter for these men. Those who are driving this month are Mesdames Walter Johnson, James W. Young, Harry Rouse, Herbert Burton, A. B. Adair, Clarence Cook, Merritt Lum and Christopher Henne.

The East Willow Street Circle met on Tuesday. It was with regret with its chairman, Mrs. W. G. Fort that many of the former members were missed from the company, having moved away, but it was a pleasure however, to greet new members who have moved to East Willow street, and those who have returned from travel, more or less extensive. After a cordial greeting by the chairman, she invited Mrs. Jewell, general chairman of the circles, to explain the purposes of these gatherings which she did in a most satisfactory and pleasing manner. The musical program, which consisted of songs by Mrs. Guy Windes, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Dean, was greatly enjoyed.

Following a social hour, the meeting adjourned to October 12, when the circle is invited to meet with Mrs. Max E. Immerwahr.

Under the auspices of the Winnetka Woman's club Mrs. Lieber will conduct two classes in Parliamentary law, beginning Monday, October 11 and closing December 15. The price of a ticket for the series of ten lessons is three dollars. Two classes will be held, an Elementary class meeting at 3 o'clock, and an Advanced class beginning at ten minutes after four. This is an unusual opportunity for excellent instruction at a very moderate price. Classes cannot be formed until at least twelve members are enrolled in each division so those interested are urged to communicate at once with Mrs. Wallace W. Chickering, 770 Rosewood avenue, Hubbard Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Eckhart and family of Kenilworth, returned last Friday by motor from the east, where they passed the summer. Their daughter, Miss Eleanor Eckhart, who was a student at Rosemary hall last year, will enter Vassar in the autumn.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. F. Davies and their son Gould returned from Ludington, Mich., on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. M. Freudenberg has moved to Long Beach, Cal.

Kenilworth Union church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Wednesday evening of this week, when Miss Virginia Ridgway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgway, was united in marriage to Leon Ellis, son of Mrs. Effie P. Ellis of Evanston. Dr. College of Evanston read the service at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride wore an attractive gown of white satin with a court train, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her veil of tulle fell to the full length of the train, from a dainty cap of lace. Her sister, Miss Harriet Ridgway, who attended as maid of honor, wore a frock of blue chiffon, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and blue larkspur. The four bridesmaids, the Misses Katherine Cowles of Springfield, Mass., Dorothy Taylor, Ruth Woodward and Katherine Slater of Kenilworth, wore frocks of orchid chiffon over blue chiffon, and carried arm bouquets of pink roses and blue larkspur. The little Misses Jane Ridgway and Connie Hannah, in dresses of peach colored taffeta, acted as ribbon stretchers.

Mr. Emory Ellis, served his brother as best man, and the ushers included Messrs. Sam and Wendell Clark of Wilmette, and Walter Gerould, and Walter Wylie of Evanston.

A reception at the Ridgway home on Cumberland avenue, in Kenilworth, followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will be at home after November 1, at 640 Hinman avenue, Evanston.

The W. C. T. U. at its meeting on Monday re-elected the present board of officers for the coming year; president, Mrs. L. C. Norton; secretary, Mrs. W. S. Hamm; treasurer, Mrs. I. G. Moody; superintendent of missions and temperance, Mrs. Dee A. Stoker; mother's meetings and anti-narcotics, Mrs. J. C. Drake; social service, Mrs. Edith Pearson; Sunday school, Miss Laura Fisher; flower mission, Miss Lillian Norton; scientific temperance instruction, Mrs. Eugene Teale; literature for prisons or jails, Mrs. I. G. Moody. The treasurer's report showed that this union has contributed $135 toward the Jubilee Fund, to be used in Americanization work and world prohibition.

Miss Millicent Gilder, who has been the guest of Miss Lillian Norton during the summer, has left the village to take a course in Library Supervision Work in Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., during the coming winter. Miss Gilder, the daughter of Methodist missionaries in India, had never visited the United States until her arrival on the St. Paul last April.

The Prohibition National Committee will hold a meeting in Recital Hall of the Auditorium, 431 South Wabash avenue, Chicago, at 8 o'clock, on Monday, September 20. The guest of honor will be Hon. Aaron S. Watkins, Prohibition candidate for President of the United States, who will speak on the issues of the campaign. All are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The British-American club gave a delightful party in honor of Mrs. Ernest Pavey, who is leaving next week for an extended stay in England, on Saturday evening of last week, at Community House. Mrs. Pavey was presented with a handsome traveling case, outfitted in ivory. There were sixty couples in attendance.

Miss Mildred Brandham Peirce, who has been spending the summer in Castle Park, Mich., will resume her dancing classes in the north shore suburbs the first week in October. Miss Peirce has accepted a position as the head of dancing at the Chicago School of Expression and Dramatic Art in the Fine Arts building.

The Music committee of the Winnetka Woman's club have arranged as their first program for the year a recital by Miss Lucille Stevenson, soprano, and Mr. Gordon Campbell, pianist, which will be held on Thursday, October 21. This will not be an open meeting.

Florence M. Sommer, voice teacher in the Sherwood Music school, will open a studio on September 20, at 425 Provident avenue. Mrs. Sommer is a graduate of the Sherwood Music school, also of the Conservator of Music of Drake University, Des Moines, Ia.

The Scott Avenue Circle will hold its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Burkhardt, 1163 Asbury avenue, one the afternoon of Friday, September 24. All residents of Hubbard Woods are cordially invited.

Mrs. Ernest Pavey and daughter, Ruth, 474 Chestnut avenue, are sailing from New York, aboard the S. S. Carmaina for England, where they will spend seven months visiting Mrs. Pavey's parents in East Devon.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden and daughters, returned yesterday from Europe. Mr. Boyden went abroad last spring as head of the American Red Cross relief work in Poland.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Boddie and family are leaving this week for southern California. Miss Judith Boddie will enter the Bishop's school for Girls at La Jolla.

Elizabeth Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall, of 759 Prospect avenue, leaves this week for school in Wellesley, Mass., where she will enter as a senior at Dana Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Conrad, 556 Chestnut street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise Marie, to Robert E. Tobin of Chicago. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Clarke, who have been spending the summer at Ridgeville, Delaware, have returned to their home at 958 Spruce street.

The Klever Klub dances at the Evanston Woman's club, under the direction of Miss Mildred Brandham Peirce, will be resumed in October.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, 822 Bryant avenue, are spending a month in the east, visiting among relatives and friends.

Miss Marjorie Buhner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Buhner, 398 Elder lane, has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Mrs. W. Norris and George, Philip and Augusta Lindquist of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests of Mrs. George Keller, 898 Ash street.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Rainer announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn, to Horace Hunter Twiford of Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Friedlander have moved from 630 Blackthorne road to 351 Linden avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bunker, 656 Lincoln avenue, have returned from Grass Lake, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hoyt are leaving October 1 for their winter home at Green Cove Springs, Fla.

CECILIA RAY BERRY
Pianist and teacher will teach a limited number of pupils at their homes, mornings. Her appearance at the World's Fair Concerts as a young girl was followed by a few years as Director of Music in Vincennes University School of Music, Ann Arbor; in the country. Her teaching experiences covers engagements in Bush Temple Conservatory, Chicago; University School of Music, Ann Arbor; Wells College, New York; and her own Studio on West End Ave., in New York City. She left the latter to assume the care of the little son of her well known sister, Margaret Berry Miller, Concert Soprano, whose untimely death is mourned by music lovers the world over. Miss Berry has had pupils from nearly every state in the Union, filling positions in Washington, D. C., New York, Ann Arbor, Indianapolis, Chicago, Fort Worth, etc. Her assistant is Miss Edith Young.
