

NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW TO ATTRACT CROWD

Live Stock, and Horse Shows, Dairy Products Exhibit, and Athletic Events Are Features

Not only farmers, dairymen and manufacturers of milk products, but the public at large is looking forward to the National Dairy Show at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, October 7 to 16, for the big exhibition is recognized as the greatest annual agricultural and industrial exposition in America. The show, with its immense herds of the finest breeds of dairy cattle and its monster display of machinery for farm, home dairy, milk plant, creamery, ice cream and cheese factories, will be made interesting to the casual visitor by its athletic carnival and its horse show.

Leading athletes of the Olympic team which won the Antwerp games will appear on the evenings of October 7, 8 and 9 in connection with the high school and college athletic contests. This will be the first appearance of the great track and field stars in America since winning the seventh Olympiad in brilliant fashion.

Fine Horse Show

On the evening of October 11 and thereafter until the close of the dairy show, the finest show horses in America will be exhibited in a dazzling horse show, which will outrival the society events at Mineola, Meadowbrook, Piping Rock and the South Shore Country club's horse meet. Lovers of horseflesh are assured a rich treat in the large entry list of hunters, saddlers and driving horses in all classes.

Announcement is made that the five great dairy breeds will be judged on the following days: Guernsey Day, October 11; Holstein Day, October 12; Brown Swiss Day, October 12; Jersey Day, October 13, and Avrshire Day, October 14. The most distinguished cattle judges in the country will officiate in the prize ring and will give the raidymen an unexcelled opportunity to compare the breeds when seen together and to study breed, type and conformation under the guidance of the world's leading experts.

Every facility for learning the newest methods will be provided and the fullest information on all phases of the dairy industry will be available for the seeker after knowledge. Every state and national cattle association will have a head quarters at the show and state leaders, county agents and clubworkers will have meetings places assigned them. The Dairy Products contest is set for October 8 and the Students' Cattle contest for October 9, Junior Cattle contest, October 8.

BARBAROUS BOLSHEVIKI

Barbarous and bloodthirsty Mongols comprise one-third of the Bolshevik army that invaded Poland, according to workers in Y. W. C. A. soup kitchens in Poland, who were forced to abandon their relief work and come home after the Reds captured large stores of the American Relief Administration by the fall of Vilno.

EXPORTS EXCEED IMPORTS

Gold imports from England continued heavy during the first ten days of August figures made public by the Federal reserve board showing imports from that source of $6,664,189. France, the only other European nation to export gold to the United States sent $676,505 in the same period. Total imports of gold to the United States from all countries between August 1 and August 10 aggregated $8,071,045. Exports during the same time were $8,430,743.

Silver imports exceeded exports in the ten days covered by the figures. Imports of the white metal amounted to $1,441,014, against exports of $854,862. The adverse trade balances, however, are permitting European nations to take little of either gold or silver. Silver exports to Europe have been only $4,054,282 and gold exports only $266,510 since January 1, 1920.

The board's figures show exports of gold totaling $101,157,159, to the nations of Asia, while South American powers have taken $104,721,300. The United States has exported $225,719,396 in gold since January 1. Silver exports this year amounted to $88,470,846, of which Asia took $73,610,622, almost 70 per cent going to Chinese bankers.

MUST HAVE COME BY MAIL

Hay fever came five days late this year, suggesting that Mr. Burleson had something to do with it.—Toledo Blade.

Ethel—Do you think we ought to marry yet awhile on so little money? Ernest—The governor has promised to increase my allowance when I marry.

Ethel—Yes, but mamma will cut mine off when I do.—Boston Transcript.

JAZZ-BO DANCE EXPECTS TO DRAW BIG ATTENDANCE

Judging by the advance sale of pasteboards the crowd at the Jazz-Bo dance to be given on Jazz-bo night, Tuesday evening, at Jazz-Bo hall (Gross Point village hall) will be a large one.

Inasmuch as it will be one of the first informal dances of the season on the north shore a large part of the attendants are expected to come from the upper section of the north shore.

The male dancers are all set to wear their Jazz-Bo ties. The orchestra will be furnished with ties for the occasion by H. M. Butler of Butler's store on Wilmette avenue.

TRUE TO FORM

"No," said the mistress in the happy old days when servants applied for work, "I haven't work enough for another girl."

"Well, ma'am," was the reply, "you might just try me, ma'am. Sure it don't take very much work to keep me busy, ma'am!"—Life.

THE BUSINESS OF PLEASURE

The hostess—Knowing you to be a cynic, I hardly expected you to honor me with your presence this evening.

Van Antler—Dear old girl, one has to come to these social affairs occasionally if only to learn what people avoid.—Judge.

Children need the Victrola

Children, as well as parents, are profiting by the educational opportunity made possible with a Victrola. The innate love for music which has been placed in every human heart can now be satisfied, refined and developed, for the Victrola brings into one's home practically all of the music of all the world. Such artists as Caruso, McCormack, Galli Curci, Gluck, Farrar, and Schumann-Heink, are ever at your command to illustrate the art of music. These and many others have intrusted their art exclusively to the Victrola because of its absolutely lifelike reproduction.

Give the Boy a Chance

Open an account for him in his own name; teach him to be systematic in his business affairs. The knowledge he will acquire by banking here now will relieve him of a great deal of embarrassment later in life.

Do not let it be said that his parents did not teach him when he was young.

We shall be glad to furnish him with a bank book and check book free.

Next to the Bible, a bank book is the second book in importance.

Let us teach him that fact.
