Mrs. D. Horsman entertained at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday at her home, 978 Elm street, her guests all being residents of Chicago. On Thursday evening Mrs. Horsman entertained informally in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Balyeat of Vanwert, O.

Music lovers on the north shore will be interested in the announcement that Mary Garden is to appear in concert for the first time in Chicago, at the Auditorium, on Sunday afternoon, October 31, at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sincere, 921 Pine street, will entertain at a dinner dance at the Northmoor Golf club next Monday evening. There will be covers for one hundred guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reach, 844 Prospect avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles L. Friedman, of 615 Lincoln avenue, left last evening for French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith of Hubbard Woods, are spending a week or ten days visiting in Rockford, Ill.

ONE of the loveliest of October weddings is to be solemnized this evening at St. Augustine's church, Wilmette, when Miss Katherine Cody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Cody, will become the bride of George Boldt McCormick of Evanston. Rev. Hubert Carleton will read the service at 8:30 o'clock. The bridal party will include the following young people: matron of honor, Mrs. William J. Lavery of Evanston, sister of the bride; maid of honor, Miss Laura Browne of Evanston; bridesmaids, Mrs. Lawrence McCormick of Memphis, Tenn., the Misses Henrietta Bush, Dorothy Robbins, and Emily McCormick of Evanston, Virginia Buchanan of Winnetka, and Harriet Ridgway of Kenilworth; ribbon stretchers, Barbara and Jane Crowe and Carol Knapp. Mr. Lawrence McCormick will attend his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Messrs. William J. Lavery, Ames Ross, Charles Dawes, and John Kimbark of Evanston, Arthur Syme of Winnetka, Percy Parker of Chicago and Ernest Rubsamen of New York.

Following the service at the church there will be a reception at the Cody home, 908 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

Harvest dinner-dances are a sort of grand finale to the summer season at the country clubs. Indian Hill had theirs last Saturday evening, and there were a number of parties. Among the hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Lynde, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Ripley, Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Blatchford, Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby G. Walling, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. John Nash Ott, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Strong, Mrs. Frank Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Cable, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart, and Mr. and Mrs. William Fitch.

The Weekly Klever Klub dances which have been so successfully held for the past four years at the Evanston Woman's club, have moved to the North Shore hotel and will become a monthly dance, beginning this Saturday evening, October 9. Tickets are in the hands of the following committee who have charge of arrangements: Miss Laura Slosson of Glencoe; Ford Borncamp, Harold Stevens and Miss Marjorie Burchard of Kenilworth; Philip Paden, Miss Dorothy Martin, John Elliott, Robert Birkin, Chester Coltra, "Gumie" Johnston, Miss Marion Blessing, Henry Hassel, Wiliam Elliott, Miss Eleanor Emig, Curtis Deak, Miss Evelyn Eastman, "Zodie" Phalen, "Ted" Thorsen, Norman Norse, John Evans and Arthur Wigglesworth.

Klever Klub sponsors are congratulating themselves on the engagement of Herbert Mintz, pianist, for the opening dance of the season, to be held this Saturday night at the Woman's club. Young Mintz, who is a student at Northwestern liberal arts college, is being accorded much popularity as the composer of the latest danze craze, "Fair One", and it is expected his appearance Saturday night will be hailed by the Klever Klubites. Miss Mildred Peirce will be the chaperon of the evening.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Isabel G. Moody, 921 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, on Monday, October 11, at 2 o'clock, sojourning after the business session, to the Wilmette Woman's club to hear the political program to be given there. Six members of the local union attended the County convention held in Willard Hall, Woman's Temple, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. A large audience which packed the hall witnessed the playlet, on Thursday, "The Hall of Fame", where Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch impersonated Susan B. Anthony.

The wedding of Miss Gladys Dorais of Winnetka, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Dorais of Chicago, to George Mau of Wilmette will be solemnized on Tuesday morning, October 19, at 9:30 o'clock at Sacred Heart church in Hubbard Woods. Rev. Father Haarth will read the service. Miss Dorais will have as her attendant, Miss Katherine Walsh, of Winnetka, and Ray Steiner of Wilmette, will serve Mr. Mau as best man.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Winnetka Relief and Aid society will be held at the Public library on Monday, October 11, at 11 o'clock. The public is invited to this meeting and especially those who contribute to the work of the society. The reports will tell of the work done during the past year and of the plans made for the coming year. The board will welcome all who may be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer, 759 Burr avenue, have returned from their summer home at Palisades Park, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCue, of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorraine, Mr. J. Summer Crossley of Hamesdale, Pa.

The Woman's Society of the Congregational church held its first meeting of the year, Wednesday, October 6. Fifty-three women listened to two delightful plays read by Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, and nearly one hundred and fifty enjoyed the appetizing luncheon served by Mrs. Arthur Sterrett, and her efficient committee.

Miss Casey, Mrs. M. H. Lieber, and Mrs. C. C. Wortley gave some enjoyable "Vacation Experiences" at the lunch table, and many people made new acquaintances, and their first contact with church work. On Wednesday, October 20, Mrs. Dickinson will read again in the morning. On Wednesday, October 27, the meeting will be an afternoon one, held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Mettler, on Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods.

Here too, an interesting program will be given. All women are cordially invited to any and all of these gatherings.

"Get-Together-Day" for all the Circles in Winnetka has been planned for Friday, October 29, the last Friday of the month. The meeting is to be held at Community House promptly at 2 o'clock. Each Circle is to give some "stunt" as a part of the afternoon's entertainment, and each stunt must not last over ten minutes, as the gymnasium must be cleared and ready for regular class work at 4 o'clock. Much fun, and an excellent chance to know other circles is thus afforded the Circle members.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Carnahan have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Madeleine Restieaux, to Donald Simmons, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Simmons of Girard, Ill., to take place at their home, 700 Central avenue, Wilmette, on Saturday evening, October 16. Rev. Hubert Carleton, rector of St. Augustine's church, Wilmette, will read the service at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Borino were hosts at a reception and dance last Sunday afternoon at their home, 859 Elm street, in honor of Mrs. Borino's brother, Mr. Dominic Pagliarul, and his bride, who have just recently returned from Italy. Mr. and Mrs. Pagliarul are making their home with the Borino's temporarily.
