

N. T. C. A. ANNOUNCES FELLOWSHIP DINNER

First of Series of Fellowship Dinners and Gatherings To Be Held on Monday Evening, November 8

The first of a series of dinners and Fellowship gatherings arranged by the New Trier Commercial association at a committee meeting Monday evening, will be held at Winnetka Community House on Monday evening, November 8.

The dinner scheduled to be held promptly at 7 o'clock, will be prepared and served by Keller brothers and Hales, Winnetka caterers, and will cost just $1 a plate. Following the dinner the business men of the township will be privileged to hear an interesting address by a leader in the commercial field. Every business man in New Trier township is urgently invited to attend this Fellowship gathering.

Fellowship gatherings are to be the outstanding features of the winter activities of the New Trier Commercial association. The committee, of which Lloyd F. Hollister of The Lake Shore Publishing company is chairman, is working diligently to insure a successful season. It is planned to have six Fellowship gatherings during the winter season in the order of one each month.

The Commercial association hopes, through the medium of these get-together meetings to stimulate a sense of fellowship and cooperation among the business men of the township and each session will be designed to be of particular interest to every merchant and professional man in New Trier.

Social Happenings

The East Willow Street Circle met with Mrs. T. Guy Windes on Tuesday afternoon. Each member told of her summer's experience which made a most interesting entertainment. Plans were formulated for this Circle's part in the get-together meeting to be held on October 29. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry I. Orwig, when the "experiences" will be continued.

Mrs. Lysander Hill will give a course of eight talks in French on "French History", under the auspices of the Alliance Francaise, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of the refugee children of France. The talks will be given in the rooms of the Alliance Francaise, 406 Fine Arts building. The regular meetings and Fullerton hall lectures of the alliance will commence, as usual, in November.

The West Elm Street Circle was entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Ostrom, 982 Elm street. The circle is planning to do work for the Infant Welfare society this winter. The afternoon's program consisted of several musical numbers by Mrs. Robert Walpole, and a rehearsal of the "stunt" this circle is to present on "Get-together day".

Of interest to many Winnetkans is the announcement of the marriage of Mr. Frank Storms, who spent the summer in Hubbard Woods, to Miss Helen Parsons of Baltimore, Md., which will take place today. Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Storms will make their home at the Shorecrest hotel in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cox, who have been in Rochester, Minn., this summer, have been visiting at the home of their parents this past week. Mrs. Cox will remain here with her parents, the J. Eager Lloyds for a few weeks, before joining her husband, who has accepted a new position in Whitehall, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Allen have closed their residence on Sheridan road for the winter, and opened their town residence at 1427 N. State Parkway, Chicago. Mrs. Allen returned last Saturday from the east, where she went to place her daughter, Miss Marjorie Allen in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Dodds, 955 Elm street, have returned from a week's trip in the east. Mrs. Dodds visited at the home of her daughter in Boston, while Mr. Dodds was busily engaged in his business interests.

George Stuart and the Misses Harriet and Elizabeth Stuart of Kenilworth, who have been in Europe for a year, arrived in New York on Thursday of last week aboard the Olympic.

Next Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howells Coffin will entertain the teachers of the public schools and the Board of Education, informally at their home, 675 Blackthorne road.

Mr. W. C. Boyden, who with his family recently returned from a six months' stay in Europe, will speak at the Community House on Sunday evening, October 24, on "Poland".

Mr. and Mrs. Arlan W. Converse, 396 Hawthorne lane, are spending several weeks visiting in the east stopping in New York, Boston and Washington. They expect to return the latter part of next week.

Miss Mildred Brandham Peirce announces that next Wednesday afternoon will be visiting day for the friends and parents of the members of her classes at the Woman's Library club in Glencoe.

Mrs. S. Elliott entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Blackthorne road, for the teachers of the Winnetka public schools.

Mrs. Marc Newman of 902 Pine street, entertained informally at her home on Friday afternoon of last week, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Harold S. Moses.

On Monday afternoon of this week Mrs. Laird Bell entertained at tea at her home on North avenue, in honor of the teachers of the Horace Mann, Skokie and Greeley schools.

Miss Alice Clague, 849 Willow street, left last evening to spend the week-end at Madison, where she will attend the Northwestern-Wisconsin football game.

Miss Estelle Kloepfer entertained informally at her home, 1004 Oak street, last Saturday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. William T. Wehrstedt and Mrs. James L. Woolsey will entertain the Oak Street Circle next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wehrstedt, 906 Cherry street.

The local W. C. T. U. was represented at the State convention in Quincy, October 12-15 by Mrs. W. S. Hamm, and Mrs. L. C. Norton, delegates.

Mrs. T. Philip Swift, formerly Miss Betty Hoyt, will attend Miss Louise Garaghty as matron of honor, on the day of her marriage, October 23, to Samuel M. Felton of Chicago.

A group of young married couples from the southeastern part of the village will hold their first dancing party of the season this evening at the Woman's club.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Ashley Gerhart, 482 Linden street, announce the birth of a son, Peter, on Sunday, October 3, at the Evanston hospital.

Mr. Alvar Bournique will open his classes in dancing at the Winnetka Woman's club next Tuesday afternoon.

Townsend Copeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Copeland, 180 Linden street, has entered Harvard university.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Seetree of Arbor Vitae road left on Sunday for a three month's trip through France.

Mrs. C. M. Goble of Waukegan is spending several days as the guest of her son, Mr. Sherman Goble, 511 Ash street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean E. Parmelee, 969 Elm street, announces the birth of a daughter, on Saturday, October 2.

Rev. James Austin Richards of the Congregational church, has been in Springfield and Jacksonville, Ill., this week, delivering addresses.

Dr. J. W. F. Davies is in Marietta, Ohio, this week, attending the annual meeting of the American Board of Missions.

Mrs. J. C. Williams of 850 Cherry street, left last week for Santa Fe, New Mexico, to visit her son, Jack Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Holland of 755 Lincoln avenue, have moved to the Virginia hotel for the winter months.

Mr. J. V. Stixrud has returned home from the hospital where he underwent a successful operation.
