MISS Elizabeth Prindiville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Prindiville, will be introduced to society at a tea given by her parents on Saturday, October 23, at their residence on Willow street. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Prindiville and the bud will be Mrs. Thomas J. Prindiville, Miss Isabel Prindiville, Mrs. A. J. Dennison, and a group of debutantes, the list of which is not yet complete. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Prindiville will give a buffet dinner and dance for the debutantes.

At the Republican Women's Mass meeting held on Wednesday afternoon at Community House a committee of women who are willing to align themselves with the Harding-Coolidge campaign was organized for campaign purposes, as well as for working at the polls on election day. Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber was appointed temporary chairman, and the committee includes: Mesdames W. A. Otis, John R. Montgomery, Charles D. Dallas, Frank Crawford, Leon H. Winne, W. D. Beall, Samuel W. McCauley, Arthur Dean, N. H. Gates, Frederick Dickinson, Wallace Rumsey, Justus Chancellor, Jr., Frank North, John McEwen and Miss Elizabeth Gemmell.

Charles N. Strotz, of 365 Sheridan road, announces the engagement of his sister, Mrs. Lillian E. de Lipkau, to Col. William H. McCurdy of Evansville, Ind.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Cody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Cody to George Boldt McCormick, was solemnized in St. Augustine's Episcopal church, Saturday evening, of last week. Rev. Hubert C. Carleton read the service at 8:30 o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. William J. Lavery of Evanston as matron of honor, and Miss Laura Browne, maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Lawrence McCormick, of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Henrietta Bush, Miss Emily McCormick, sister of the groom, Miss Dorothy Robbins, Miss Harriet Ridgway of Kenilworth, and Miss Virginia Buchanan of Winnetka. Lawrence McCormick of Memphis attended his brother as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. W. J. Lavery, Ames Ross, Percy Parker, Arthur Syme, John Kimbark, Charles Dawes and Ernest Rubsamen of New York City.

The bridal gown was of white satin, trimmed in rose point lace, the skirt of which was corded, and made short. There was a court train. Her veil, which fell the full length of the train was fastened on the head with a coronet of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

The attendants were gowned alike in pink taffeta frocks, made with full skirts and tight corded bodices, and varying in shade from pale pink to a rose worn by the matron and maid of honor. Pink scarfs of tulle were draped about the shoulders and arms, terminating in a large rosette fastened at one side of the head. They carried bouquets of lavender sweet peas and pink roses.

The little ribbon stretchers, Carol Knapp and Jane Crowe, wore frocks of blue and pink, and the flower girl, little Barbara Crowe, was dressed in white over pink.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, 908 Greenwood avenue, followed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, southern smilax and palms. This week Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are in the Thousand Islands, and later will go to New York and to Mr. McCormick's old home in Philadelphia. They will be at home after November 1, at the Maple Court apartments, 1119 Maple avenue, Evanston.

A check for 2,439 dinars, Serbian money, went to Dr. Alice Barlow-Brown the first of October, sent from generous friends of the physician who appreciate that they have an able representative to do their charitable work in Serbia. Later in the fall, Mrs. Morris L. Greeley will be sending again. If anyone has failed to get in his check with this first installment there will be an opportunity to send again before Christmas. Mrs. Greeley wishes to acknowledge a check for $50 for Serbian Relief today.

The MacDowell club held its opening meeting on Monday, October 11, at the home of Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt, 185 Green Bay road. "Early French Music" was the topic of the afternoon. The program consisted of a paper by Mrs. John Hansel, Jr., piano solos by Mrs. Robert Smith, and Mrs. William McAdams, songs by Mrs. Burton Atwood, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur R. Dean and ensemble numbers by Mrs. Warner Robinson, Miss Kathryn Greene, Mrs. C. E. Karstrom and Mrs. Asa Cooley, arranged by Mrs. Hansel.

The next meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club, on Thursday afternoon, October 21, at 2:30 o'clock, is in charge of the Music committee. The program consists of a joint recital by Lucille Stevenson, soprano, and Gordon Campbell, pianist.

This is the first of a series of musical afternoons which the music department of the club has planned, and it is very much desired that the club members will co-operate in making this event the success it ought to be. A guest fee of twenty-five cents will be charged.

Miss Stevenson and Mr. Campbell are under the management of Wendell Heighton, and are being booked extensively throughout the middle west. Miss Stevenson's recital programs have evoked much praise from the critics, and as soloist on tour with the Minneapolis Orchestra for three seasons, 1910-11-12, she won highest commendation in the principal eastern and middle western cities. Mr. Campbell has made three American tours with Charles W. Clark, and has also made extensive tours through Great Britain and on the continent.

This is a rare opportunity to hear a charming program and it is hoped that members will invite many guests to enjoy it with them.

Of interest in the village is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Marion S. Key, sister of Mrs. J. Allen Haines, 854 Prospect avenue, to Mr. Norman Lees-Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perrin Lees-Smith of Cheadle, Lancashire, England. The wedding will take place November 1 in Shanghai, China, whither the bride-to-be sailed Oct. 12. As Miss "Pansy" Key, she was known as one of the most attractive and popular girls in Chicago society. She has made her home in the east for some years.

On Wednesday, October 20, the Woman's Society of the Congregational church will meet at 10 o'clock in Community House for regular sewing. At half past ten Mrs. Dickinson will read a prize store of 1919. A light lunch of coffee and rolls will be served to those who remain to prepare work for the next regular meeting, November 3. The next social meeting will occur on Wednesday, October 27, at half past two at the home of Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, 1119 Sheridan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Paul Young who with the latter's parents, the Frank R. Chandlers, have been occupying Harros Hall, the old home of Harry Gordon Selfridge of London, for the past two months, have taken a house in Winnetka for the winter and will take possession next week.

On Thursday, October 21, Monsieur Cauet announces that he will commence his French courses at the Winnetka Woman's club, under the direction of the Art and Literature committee. The course is open to any woman whether a club member or not. For further information regarding the classes inquire of Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, Mrs. Nathaniel H. Blatchford, Mrs. John R. Fletcher, Mrs. Samuel A. Greeley or Mrs. Henry F. Tenney.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maverick Collier landed early this week in New York and will come to Chicago shortly for a visit with several relatives of Mrs. Collier, who before her marriage in France last year was Miss Polly Root, daughter of the late John W. Root. Mrs. Edwin Fletcher, 822 Bryant avenue, is a sister of Mrs. Collier. Mr. and Mrs. Collier have been engaged in relief work in Constantinople for the last year.

Among those who are attending Miss Walker's school at Simsbury, Conn., this winter are Miss Barbara Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott of Hubbard Woods, Miss Anne Kales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Kales, and Miss Alice de Windt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt.
