

DEDICATE GOLD STAR MEMORIAL AT SCHOOL

Seventy-five Residents of Winnetka Participate in Fitting Tribute to Heroes at Horace Mann School

TWO BEAUTIFUL TABLETS

Children Pay Tribute to Heroism of Winnetka Gold Star Fighters in Special Ceremony

At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 7, in the presence of about seventy-five residents of Winnetka, the memorial to the Winnetka boys who went to the World war and did not return, was simple but impressively dedicated at the Horace Mann school.

Mrs. William A. Otis, chairman of the Gold Star committee, introduced Mr. Horace K. Tenney, president of the War Emergency Union, who spoke of the community; and Superintendent of Schools C. W. Washburne, who told of the spirit in which this memorial is received and regarded by the children in his charge.

Beautiful Memorial

The memorial is placed in the main corridor of the building, facing north near the eastern windows. It reaches from ceiling to floor. Above is a painting by Arthur Colt, art instructor at the University of Wisconsin, showing files of soldiers marching upward with the flags of the Allies waving behind them, while airplanes hover above.

Immediately below the picture is a strip of green marble, in which sixteen gold stars appear side by side. Below at the left is a marble tablet on which the following words are carved:

"In memory of the boys of the Horace Mann school and those others of Winnetka, who gave their lives for their country in the great war.

"On Fame's Eternal Camping ground their silent tents are spread."

Matching this at the right is another tablet bearing these names:

Victor E. Blix, A. Courtney Campbell, Jr., Dinsmore Ely, Roswell Hayes Fuller, Norman Hillock, Allen K. Hyde, Max M. Meyer, Fletcher Ladd McCordic, Horatio Powell, Philip Comfort Starr, Charles D. Weart, Vincenzo Di George, James E. Hayes Wesley Juleff, George R. Kelly, Pasquale Salerno.

Standing to the fore on a pedestal, is the figure of the winged Victory of Samothrace.

The whole is framed in ivory enamel wood work, designed in classic on each side. The design is the work style, with two tall candle sticks one of Mr. Samuel S. Otis.

Dignified Tribute

The memorial is a dignified, simple and effective tribute to the Gold Star Men of Winnetka.

On the following Monday at 8:45 o'clock, before school sessions opened, the children had their dedication of the memorial.

To the tune of "John Brown" the different grades marched into the lower corridor. First came Miss Dwyer's little children, they lining up where they could face the others, the Stars and Stripes being held aloft by them. After 500 children had assembled, and the Star Spangled Banner was sung, Superintendent Washburne gave a brief address, showing the children how they could follow in the steps of these noble men who had given, not lost, their lives in the great cause.

Following the talk wreaths were placed at the base of the tablets by two small boys of the lower grades. The exercises closed with the singing of "America the Beautiful".

The Gold Star committee, in charge of the preparation of the memorial, includes the following:

Mrs. William A. Otis, chairman; Mrs. John Buckingham, Mrs. Charles S. Buell, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Miss Kate Dwyer, Mrs. Carrie S. Goodchild, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty, Miss Ruth Matz, Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, Miss Emma Williams, Mrs. H. A. Windt.

The cost of the memorial was raised by private subscription, by contributions from the Winnetka Woman's club, the War Emergency Union and the Winnetka Village Improvement association.

Dean Heilman Comments on Great Demand by Business Men Upon School Employment Bureau

The total annual salaries of the men and women who have taken special courses recently in the School of Commerce of Northwestern University and who have been placed in good positions by the school's bureau of employment aggregate $1,541,760, according to an announcement by Dean Ralph E. Heilman. Many large firms located in the Chicago manufacturing district have benefited through a friendly relationship with the school's bureau and during the season of 1919-'20, 824 calls for service were received by the bureau and 732 positions were filled as a result.

Besides, the employment bureau filled 105 positions for which no call was made in which the university itself took the initiative. Thus the total number of persons placed by the bureau was 837. The positions vary from plant managers and other $5,000 to $8,000 to the places of minor importance calling for salaries of from $1,200 to $4,000 a year.

"The bureau of employment of our school is under the direction of a trained secretary," commented Dean Heilman, "and is maintained entirely by the school itself; no fees whatever are charged either the employer or the graduate student. Business men, indeed, are asked to co-operate with us as we feel it to be one of our duties to benefit local business with the excellent product of Northwestern School of Commerce."

WINNETKA PUBLIC LIBRARY GIVEN SET OF RARE BOOKS

The board of trustees of the Winnetka Public Library is justly proud of a donation which has recently been made to the library by Mrs. John Buckingham, her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Elliott, and her niece, Mrs. R. E. Durham. The gift consists of a set of six volumes, being Racine's "Les Coutmes Historiques", a work of much careful research, and representing the culmination of the printers' engravers' and bookbinders' arts. The work comes from the library of Mr. and Mrs. William Gold Hibbard and bears their book plates. The gratitude of the citizens of Winnetka is due the donors for placing a work of such value in the library.

LIBRARY BOARD REQUESTS DONATIONS OF NEW BOOKS

Owing to the increase in the cost of maintaining the Winnetka Public Library, the amount of money to be expended for books has of necessity been reduced. It is hoped however that citizens who are in the habit of buying the latest books will, after they have read them, help the library by donating such books so that they may be circulated among the patrons of the library.

NEW TRIER GRIDIRON MEN POMMEL RACINE

Racine High school football team, representing one of the three strongest gridiron squads in the Badger state, was the seventh 1920 victim of the New Trier High school pig-skin tossers Saturday morning at Kenilworth when they were forced to accept the small end of an 17-0 score.

George Budd played at quarter for the victors and performed well. The individual stars of the contest were Wienecke, Joy, Bartleman and Woodward, the latter playing his first game with the regulars but thrilling the crowd with a 45-yard run early in the game.

New Trier will play Evanston in the last Suburban league game of the season at New Trier tomorrow morning.

MERCHANTS ENJOY REAL "FEED" AND GOOD TALK

Henry Riggs Rathbone Tells Business Men of Possibilities of Great Mississippi Valley.

Forty business men of New Trier township attended the initial dinner of the season given at Winnetka Community House, Monday evening, for the business men of the township, under the auspices of the New Trier Commercial Association.

The dinner was followed by an address by Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth, on the general subject, "The Mississippi Valley."

Mr. Rathbone outlined effectively the remarkable resources and possible future development of this great "land of plenty." He pictured Chicago and the surrounding country as the future world market and emphasized the necessity of developing transportation, by rail, roadways, waterways and air routes. He stressed the necessity of developing good roads and waterways. He described the wonderful possibilities of opening the Mississippi river to South American trade, and the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River to trans-Atlantic commerce.

President Henry B. Gates, of the New Trier Commercial association, was toastmaster at the dinner. George Batten, of Winnetka, led in community singing, instilling a plentiful quantity of old-time "pep" into the evening's activities.

The next business men's dinner is scheduled for early in December.

Ferdinand Bechler, gardener, of Glenview, Ill., was struck and instantly killed Monday by an automobile driven by Mrs. Ernest Bostrom, Gross Point, on Lake avenue west of the village.

Bechler, according to Mrs. Bostrom, was riding a bicycle in advance of the automobile and suddenly jumped from the wheel into the path of the machine. The woman became confused and lost control of the car. Bechler was struck by the fender of the machine and dragged into a deep ditch at the side of the road. He was crushed beneath the car and instantly killed.

The Man Who Borrows

The man who borrows gets the habit. And it's a bad habit. The chronic borrower is shunned by his friends, and soon becomes his worst enemy. The best way to keep from borrowing is to have a savings account at the bank. Then, if you need money, draw it and you are under obligations to no one.

Most men and women make a fizzle of saving, because they put a great deal of thought into earning of money and none at all into the saving of it.

Mouthpieces

THE mouthpiece is an important part of your telephone. When it is broken, the sound waves are imperfectly transmitted and the service suffers.

In Chicago approximately 70,455 broken telephone mouthpieces have to be replaced yearly.

Think of the labor and the material involved in replacing 70,455 broken mouthpieces in the offices, homes, factories and warehouses of the city.

Careful handling of the telephone instrument avoids waste and faulty service.
