

Woman's Club

A regular meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club was held on Thursday afternoon, November 18, at 2:30 o'clock. The president was in the chair. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read by Mrs. de Windt, the recording secretary, and approved.

Mrs. Porter announced that at the last Board meeting, on November 11, the following motion was passed: "The Board has decided that after a final notice has been sent to members who have not paid their dues, their names shall be posted in the club house, and after a month shall be dropped from the list of members." Mrs. Porter spoke of the Fourth Biennial meeting of the Illinois Women's Legislative congress which will be held on December 28 and 29, in the Gold room of the Congress hotel. As an organization of over 500 members the club is entitled to send thirteen delegates to the congress, and any member who would care to volunteer for this service is asked to communicate with Mrs. Porter. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Treadwell is the president of the congress.

The Winnetka Public library is making a plea for donations of books. The funds for the purchase of new reading matter are not adequate to meet the library's needs, and everyone is urged to look over her book shelves and see what modern fiction or older books she would care to share with the public.

Mrs. Porter announced a great opportunity and privilege for the club members at the next regular meeting on Thursday, December 2. Mr. Willoughby G. Walling, vice chairman of the National Red Cross, will speak on "The Relief of Europe". Mr. Walling brings to this talk all the wealth of his varied experience in Washington and abroad.

Mrs. Dickinson reported on the meeting of the Tenth Federation at Kenilworth on November 10.

Mrs. Huddle, woman member of the Village Council, reported on a number of matters of civic interest.

An afternoon kindergarten is being conducted daily at Community House. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Fulton.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of the Art and Literature committee, Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, chairman. Mrs. Norman Harrower, the essayist announced, was unable to be present, so her paper on "Modern French Poets" was read by Mrs. Laird Bell. Mrs. Edwin Fletcher played two numbers by Debussy, and Mr. Stinson, accompanied by Mr. Karl Hakes, sang some modern French songs. The music carried out the thought suggested by Mrs. Harrower's paper, of the trend of the modern school of French fine arts.

Tea was served by the following hostesses, Mrs. Dudley K. French, Mrs. Harry Hansen, Mrs. Charles M. Joy, and Mrs. Benjamin K. Smith.

Social Happenings

One of the most attractive of the early winter nuptials was solemnized on Tuesday evening when Miss Margaret Scheidenhelm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank John Scheidenhelm was united in marriage to Leland Virden Pierson. The ceremony was read by Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd in the First Congregational church of Wilmette at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin made with a court train and trimmed with pearls and rose point lace; her tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of lace and pearls caught with orange blossoms and hung to the bottom of the train. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and sweetheart roses. Miss Frances Scheidenhelm attended her sister as maid of honor and was gowned in blue chiffon and tulle over silver cloth. She carried rose pinks and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Moulding, wore a gown of gold chiffon over cloth of gold and carried aaron ward roses and lavender sweet peas. The ribbon stretchers, Miss Mary Louise Scheidenhelm, sister of the bride, Katherine Scheidenhelm, a cousin, wore gowns of rose pink tulle over satin. William G. Lodwick of Chicago served Mr. Pierson as best man and the ushers were Merritt Bruch and Staver Moulding of Wilmette, Russell Stafford of Glencoe, Vincent Bell of Fulton, Ill., Carl Widney of Chicago and Albert Scheidenhelm. The church was beautifully decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums and at the altar two lovely cathedral candles were placed. Immediately after the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 804 Forest avenue, Wilmette.

"A dozen portraits will solve a dozen of your 'What to give at Christmas?' problems. Sittings made now relieve you of shopping worries later on, and we will have time to give the work special attention."

Mr. and Mrs. Pierson have left for the south and will spend their honeymoon in North Carolina. They will be at home after January 1 at 931 Twelfth street, Wilmette.

New Trier High school was well represented at the Blackstone theater on Saturday evening. Miss Lulu Wright, English instructor, believes in studying drama at first hand. Through her interest, one hundred tickets in the first four rows of the balcony were secured for her pupils and their friends. Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln" has been so highly recommended that Miss Gertrude Gifford, also an English instructor at New Trier, will make arrangements for her classes to witness the performance sometime in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Forman and family of 646 Prospect avenue, who have been visiting in England and Scotland, sailed for home on the "Olympic" on Wednesday.

Miss Marion Emily Walker was formally introduced to society yesterday at a buffet luncheon given by her mother, Mrs. Lyman Thomas Walker.

Announcement is made to the women of the north shore of a class in dressmaking to be held every Friday evening in the Community House in Wilmette. A very competent dressmaker, who has been with the Northwestern Community House for several years, has offered her services to the community. This is an opportunity not to be slighted. Take advantage of it, every one, and if the waist refuses to fit or the skirt will not hang, bring it to the Community House for help.

"They Don't Answer"

SOMETIMES, when a number is asked for on the telephone, the operator reports that the number called does not answer.

Experience shows the operator is seldom mistaken. In the majority of cases the person called is absent or not near enough to hear the telephone bell. Sometimes he is just slow in answering.

"Don't answer" reports would be greatly reduced if subscribers would be prompt in answering when their bells ring.
