

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MUCH interest is being manifested in the Good Fellows' Christmas party which is to be given next Tuesday evening at the Winnetka Woman's club, under the auspices of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league. The proceeds of the affair will go to provide good cheer for the needy. There will be cards and dancing. In the receiving line will be the chairman of the social committee, Mrs. Robert E. Mehren, and her committee, Mesdames E. J. O'Connell, Louis Conrad, Thomas Bossort, J. J. Enright, Samuel Martin, Harry Davies, Herman Tratt, Frank Koltzman, John Cawkwell, Edward Hines, George Tatter, Emil Moorner, F. L. Maloney, Thomas McDonald, William Brady, and the Misses Margaret Fagin and Mabel Laure. Members of the Social Service department, who are in charge of the party, include Mesdames N. C. Anderson, chairman, John S. Cook, John E. Cawkwell, W. E. Connor, M. A. Wink, J. A. Vollman, Katherine Murphy, L. J. Hillman, J. H. Martin and the Misses Susan Alles and B. Scully.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Greeley, and the Misses Greeley, of 655 Maple avenue, have issued at home cards for Sundays, December 26, and January 2, from 5 to 7 o'clock, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storms.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Prindiville of 229 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, will give a dinner party next Wednesday at the Casino for their niece, Miss Elizabeth Prindiville, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Prindiville.

Holiday activities at Indian Hill Golf club will open on Friday, December 17, on which occasion Mr. A. R. Bruner of Chicago will entertain a group of north shore friends with a dancing party. Following is a list of affairs to be given at the club during the Christmas season:

Saturday, December 18: Winter Sports and buffet supper.

Monday, December 20: Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Jr., and Mrs. Archibald W. Shaw will give a dance for their respective sons, Malcolm Stevenson and John Shaw. Preceding the dancing party, Mrs. J. R. Dickinson will entertain a group of twenty at dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Leslie Dickinson.

Tuesday evening, December 21: A dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Sherman in honor of their sons.

Wednesday evening, December 22: Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger de Windt will be hosts at a dancing party in honor of their daughters.

Thursday, December 23: A dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart for their daughters, the Misses Joan and Ellen Stuart.

Friday evening, December 24: Mrs. Robert Cluett will entertain for her two granddaughters, Miss Emily Scott, who is returning from Dobbs Ferry, and Miss Barbara Scott, who will come home from Sinsbury, Conn. Sunday, December 26: Mrs. Edgar Stanton and Mrs. James Fentress will give a sports luncheon.

Monday, December 27: Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen will entertain with a dance.

Tuesday, December 28: Mrs. Franklin Rudolph will entertain with winter sports or a tea dance for her son, Charles, to be followed by a dinner party in honor of her older son, Frank, which will precede the dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nicholls, in honor of their son, Herbert and daughter, Barbara.

Wednesday, December 29: Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert C. Adams will give a dancing party for their daughter, Katharine, to be preceded by a dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen.

Thursday, December 30: Mrs. Charles Klotz will entertain at luncheon in honor of her son, Charles, followed by a tea dance given by Mrs. L. D. Kellogg.

Saturday, January 1: Miss Harriott Houghteling will be hostess at a luncheon followed by winter sports and a tea dance between the hours of four and six o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall E. Schoenthaler will entertain at dinner in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, of Sheridan road, will give a dancing party on Tuesday evening, December 28, at the Winnetka Woman's club, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marcella Mettler, who is returning from Smith college, Miss Elinor Woodward and Mr. Julian Woodward, who are returning from Miss Bennett's school and Cornell to spend the holidays at their home, 565 Sheridan road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Philip Swift entertained a party of fifty guests at dinner last evening at the Casino, preceding the pageant of the east ball at the Coliseum for the benefit of the Chicago Lying-In hospital. Among those who will have box parties at the ball are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden of 725 Pine street.

Mrs. Harry Clarke and Mrs. Harry Craig were hostesses at an evening program of the Community Drama club held on Monday evening, December 6, in the Neighborhood room at Community House. The program consisted of a short talk on "The Christmas Spirit," by Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler; a reading of Dicken's Christmas Carol, by Mrs. Carrie Prouty and a play, "Dust of the Road," written by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman, the cast being as follows: The tramp.....Mr. Pecival Hunter Peter Steele.....Mr. S. M. Goble Prudence Steele, Peter's wife.....Mrs. William Wehrstedt Prudence's Uncle.....Mr. Montague Ferry

At the close of the program the cast, through Mr. Ferry as spokesman, presented the club with the scenery, which they had purchased and made for the occasion. Before the audience adjourned for refreshments Mr. Freeman led in the singing of two Christmas carols, Mrs. Hunter at the piano.

On Monday evening, December 6, Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Fisher of Winnetka, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a dinner party for members of the family, at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were married at Trowbridge, Ontario, Canada, in 1870, but have made their home in Winnetka for a number of years. In their family are three children, Richard Fisher of Manitoba, Miss Laura Fisher, and Edwin G. Fisher of Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are members of the Wilmette Methodist church, and are indeed proud of their excellent record of attendance in Sunday school since early childhood.

A delightful forerunner of the holiday season is the certainty that the little crowd of young folks will come home from eastern colleges and schools to make merry their brief respite from studies. From Dobbs Ferry next Thursday will come, via special, Miss Emilie Hoyt, daughter of Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt, Miss Marjorie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Allen, and Miss Emily Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott. From Bryn Mawr will come Miss Elizabeth Scott, daughter of the John W. Scotts.

The Harvard Glee club has been transformed since its last visit to Chicago into a male chorus, which gives classical music rather than college glees. The club will give a concert here at Orchestra Hall, Monday, December 27.

Mr. Laird Bell is president of the Harvard club of Chicago, and Mr. Goddard Cheney is in charge of the tickets.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Anna Pearson, 1233 Lake avenue, Wilmette, on Monday afternoon next, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. L. C. Brumbley of Chicago, county superintendent of Evangelistic work, will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Sherman of 537 Sheridan road, have issued invitations for a dance to be given in honor of their sons, at the Indian Hill Golf club, Tuesday evening, December 21.
