

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley.

MRS. LORENZO JOHNSON, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Stewart Johnson, in Washington, has returned to Winnetka for the holidays. Mrs. Johnson will not open her home before she goes to California, and therefore will have her usual "at home" for all her friends on Christmas day at the home of her son and daughter, Major and Mrs. Raymond Hardenbergh, on Private road, Hubbard Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Leonard and Miss Leonard will be "at home" on New Year's Day, from 4 until 7 o'clock, at "Wildacre."

The engagement of Miss Mary Ann Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Cooper, of 5240 Lakewood avenue, Chicago, to Mr. Robyn E. MacFadden, son of Mrs. John M. Henderson, of Wilmette, was announced at a musical and tea given last Saturday afternoon. Miss Cooper is a student at the Northwestern University School of Music and a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. MacFadden is attending the University of Wisconsin where he is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

An evening guest meeting of the MacDowell Musical club of Winnetka was held in the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Whitman, Thursday, December 9, at 8:15. Each member was privileged to invite three guests and judging from the number in attendance, everyone must have taken advantage of this opportunity to give themselves the pleasure of a very delightful evening, for there were about one hundred people present. Mr. Day Williams, cellist, was the assisting artist, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Williams. The following is the program:

With the approach of colder weather and snowflakes now and then, it behooves us all, at this particular happy time of the year, to think of the poor and needy. Many of us do not realize the extensive work the Winnetka Relief and Aid society is doing right in our own village, nor have we any idea of the great need for clothing and shoes. This week we have an urgent appeal from Mrs. Lawrence Stein and from Miss Kate Dwyer, who are kept busy these days looking after some very deserving families, stating: "Please," with the word please underscored, "send all used clothing and shoes, also toys and other articles to Miss Kate Dwyer, 858 Elm street, or phone Mrs. Lawrence Stein, Winnetka 170, who will call for packages." The real Christmas spirit is only acquired through the joy of making someone else happy, and surely there isn't a family in Winnetka who cannot do their bit in this case without any added expense whatever.

The East Willow Street Circle met with Mrs. Max Immerwahr on Tuesday afternoon, and was highly entertained by a talk given by Mrs. James Patterson. During the past five years Mr. and Mrs. Patterson have spent one-half of each year in Japan, in raising and packing for export the teas of that country. Mrs. Patterson's story dealt with the impressions of a business woman. Many beautiful samples of Japanese work were exhibited and Miss Mary Forrest wore one of the lovely Japanese costumes.

The musical program consisted of vocal selections by Mrs. Joseph Bren, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Arthur Dean, one of the selections being "Starlight," written by Mr. Bren. The Circle is invited to meet with Mrs. Wallace Beals, assisted by Mrs. Davies, in January.

On last Monday afternoon the two parliamentary law classes, which have been conducted at the Winnetka Woman's club under the leadership of Mrs. M. H. Lieber, held their final meeting in the form of a joint session, followed by a delightful-social hour. Presided at the tea tables were the Misses Edna Harry and Margaret Casey, two of our Winnetka school teachers

Mrs. Marie Sidenius Zendt, soprano, who spends her summers here in Wilmette, was soloist on the American Composers' program of the Musicians' club of Women on Monday, December 13, in Recital hall, Fine Arts building. Mrs. Zendt rendered songs by Rossetter G. Cole, Harold Hammond and Herbert E. Hyde.

One of our prominent Winnetka club woman, Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, of 985 Elm street, will appear on the program at the opening of the new Woman's club in Antioch, Ill., on next Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lieber will speak on the "Educational Work of the State Federation," of which she is general chairman.

A feature of the annual Christmas party of the Congregational church Sunday school, to be held this afternoon at Community House, will be the presentation of a play by forty children from the Chicago Commons. Members are asked to bring a gift for the children at Chicago Commons at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schulze have just returned from California, where they spent the last two months. Their daughter, Miss Helen Schulze, will return from Smith College early next week for the Christmas holidays. Cadet Victor Schulze will arrive home today from Shattuck Military school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Porter will entertain at dinner at their home in Hubbard Woods, on Tuesday evening, December 28, preceding the young people's dancing party to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club by Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Porter, of Hubbard Woods are expecting their daughter, Miss Nancy Porter from Bryn Mawr, and their son, Eliot Porter, from Harvard, home to spend the Christmas holidays on Wednesday of next week.

Mrs. Hugh J. McBirney, of Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, gave a luncheon on Tuesday in honor of her niece, Miss Harriet Rew Nichols, who is one of the season's debutantes.

Miss Judith Boddie, who is attending the Bishop's school in southern California, will spend the Christmas holidays with the family at the Huntington hotel in Pasadena.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. Pearsons, in Wilmette, on Monday, was addressed by Mrs. Brumlay, of Chicago, who gave a helpful Bible reading on "Patient Continuance in Well-Doing." Mrs. Morton Paterson, of Wilmette, told of the interesting trip she and Mr. Paterson took abroad last summer, when some time spent in Scotland was used in making observations on the temperance conditions and the prospects for prohibition in that country. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. William Carey.

Skokie Country club announces a Holiday Party, with dancing and bridge-whist, for Tuesday evening, December 28.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fentress will entertain at a dancing party this evening at their home, on Sheridan road, in honor of their son, James, Jr.
