

FIFTH GRADE PUPIL, WINS ALTSCHUL GARDEN PRIZE

Jack Leadroot Winner of Frst Prize in Annual Award of Altschul Memorial Garden Fund

Prizes for the best school gardens were awarded in the Winnetka Public schools from the Charles D. Altschul Memorial Garden Fund this week. The first prize of $5 was won by Jack Leadroot, fifth grade, Horace Mann school. The second prize of $3 was won by Paul Jackett, in the sixth grade of the Skokie school. The three prizes of $2 each were won by Richard Hounen, John Barrenbrugge and Paul Runnfeldt. The first two are pupils in the Horace Mann school. Paul Runnfeldt is a freshman at the New Trier High school. The prizes were awarded by Superintendent Washburne on the recommendation of Harry P. Clarke, superintendent of playgrounds and school gardens.

The fund from which the prizes are contributed was made by a number of friends of the late Charles D. Altschul, who felt that in this way his memory and the memory of his interest in school garden could be best preserved. The fund will hereafter provide for ten prizes instead of five.

The presentation of the prizes was made at an assembly of all the pupils in the Horace Mann and Skokie schools, respectively. Mr Washburne gave a brief talk on the reason for the memorial fund, and Mr. Clarke explained why the particular boys, who won the prizes, were chosen for this honor.
