

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Klotz of 722 Prospect avenue, Winnetka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Robert C. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bennett of Kenilworth. Miss Klotz will be remembered as the Indian Hill golfer who has twice won the city championship and has been a contender in the woman's western and women's national golf events. She is at present a student at Smith college and is spending the Christmas holidays at home. She will return to Smith to finish the school year. No date has as yet been set for the wedding.

An invitation to the Bachelors and Benedick's ball is the crowning glory of a debutante's success, for only a few are invited each year. Among those who received the much coveted cards for this year's ball, which took place on Thursday evening at the Drake hotel, were the Misses Caroline de Windt, Betty Scott and Beatrix Thorne, of Winnetka. A number of dinners preceded the ball. Among the hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Cable, of Hubbard Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peabody Butler, of 777 Bryant avenue, who had parties at the Drake.

Holiday activities opened at Indian Hill Golf club on Friday, December 17, on which occasion a college fraternity entertained a group of north shore friends with a dancing party. Following is a list of affairs to be given at the club during the coming season.

Monday, December 27: Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen will entertain with a dance.

Tuesday, December 28: Mrs. Franklin Rudolph will entertain with winter sports or a tea dance for her son, Charles, to be followed by a dinner party in honor of her older son, Frank, which will precede the dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nichols, in honor of their son, Herbert and daughter, Barbara.

Wednesday, December 29: Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert C. Adams will give a dancing party for their daughter, Katharine, to be preceded by a dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen.

Thursday, December 30: Mrs. Charles Klotz will entertain at luncheon in honor of her son, Charles, followed by a tea dance given by Mrs. L. D. Kellogg.

Saturday, January 1: Miss Harriott Houghteling will be hostess at a luncheon followed by winter sports and a tea dance between the hours of four and six o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall E. Schoenthaler will entertain at dinner in the evening.

The Winnetka Camp Fire girls are lighting the candle of work these days—for "Wohelo (the camp fire call) means work," they say. Their hands have been busy in mastering the difficulties of knot tying, fire-making, and simple first aid.

A joint meeting of the five groups of Camp Fire Girls was held in the assembly room of Community house, Friday, December 17. Each one, in this number of nearly one hundred girls, was anxious to help her group make the best possible record in these things. Some of the Boy Scouts and members of the Camp Fire Councils, acted as judges. There was also a short drill under Mr. Davies, and the meeting closed with the singing of camp fire songs and Christmas carols, led by Mrs. David Kennicott.

Two talks on health will be given to the Camp Fire Girls after the first of January by the village nurse, Miss Mary Garretson. She will follow these by a series of lessons to each group on home nursing. It is possible to give instruction of a practical nature in these smaller groups, and to prepare the girls to meet with helpfulness, the demands of emergencies or short illnesses in the home. An exhibition of some of the work will be given at the completion of the course.

Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway Watson, of 224 Sunset road, and Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell, of Winnetka, will entertain two groups of members of the Harvard Glee club, which will give a concert at Orchestra hall on Monday, at dinner on Christmas Day, at one of the downtown clubs or hotels. Mr. and Mrs. Murry Nelson, formerly of Winnetka, will give a dinner at their residence, on East Schiller street, Chicago, on Christmas night. At the invitation of the department of education of the French government the glee club will tour France next summer and will sing on Bastille Day, July 14, at Strassbourg.

Daniel Leonard has returned home from Dartmouth college and is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Leonard, at Wild-acre.

Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Fillis and two children left Wednesday for Sutherland, Ia, where they will spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Greeley and the Misses Greeley, of 655 Maple avenue, have issued "at home" cards for Sundays, December 26, and January 2, from 5 to 7 o'clock to meet Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storms.

Mrs. Thomas R. Lyon, of Chicago, and Mrs. John W. Gary, of Hubbard Woods, have issued invitations for a musical Monday, January 3, at 4 o'clock, in the Crystal ballroom of the Blackstone.

The Saturday Evening Bridge club was entertained informally on Saturday evening of last week at the home of Miss Alice Behn, 627 Sheridan road, Winnetka.

Joseph Maxwell Whitwright, formerly of Winnetka, who is attending the University of Wisconsin, is spending the holiday season with his parents at their home in Evanston.

Mr. E. S. Harrold of Kansas City, formerly of Winnetka, spent last Sunday with friends in the village. Mr. Harrold is with the S. S. White Dental Supply company, and will be transferred from Kansas City to Atlanta, Ga., after the first of the year. His family will not move further south until after the close of school in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt of Sheridan road, gave a masquerade ball Wednesday night at Indian Hill for their daughter, Alice, who is home from school at Simsbury, Conn., for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. de Windt had sixteen guests at dinner preceding the ball.

The Village Dancing club, a new organization in the village, will hold the first of a series of four dancing parties next Monday evening at the Wilmette Woman's club.

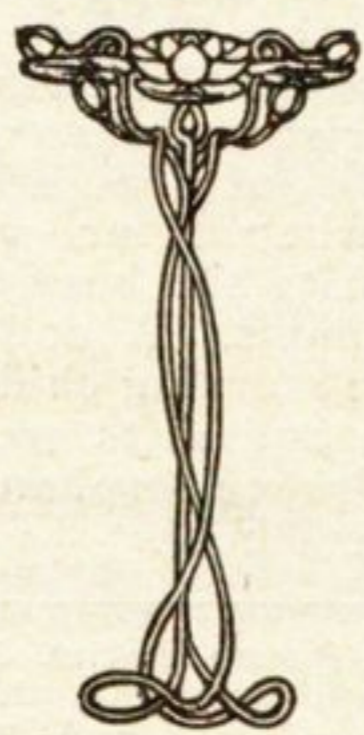

On Christmas Eve Mrs. Robert Cluett, of Hubbard Woods, gave a dance at the Indian Hill club for her grand-daughters, Miss Emily Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, and Miss Barbara Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. James Porter will entertain at dinner at their home in Hubbard Woods, on Tuesday evening preceding the young people's dancing party to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club by Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knox Owsley of 720 Prospect avenue, will go to Castle Hot Springs, Ariz., and California in mid-January for the rest of the winter.

Dr. Miller, Osteopath, specialist in stomach and nervous disorders, North Shore Hotel. Phone Evanston 6424. LTG40-tfc

May You and Yours have a very Merry Christmas and a Year full of Peace, Happiness and Prosperity

THOMAS J. LYNCH & CO.
Tree Surgeons

Announcing SEMI-ANNUAL
A Readjustment of Prices Clearance Sale based on Replacement Value. Also start of our

Unseasonable weather and late deliveries have created an overstock in our store. Our desire to reduce this stock before we take our inventory has prompted us to reduce our prices, basing these reductions on estimated replacement values.

Furthermore we have started our SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE three weeks earlier than is our custom.

For the sale we have placed all our broken lots and discontinued lines, values up to $18.00, in three distinct lots at $7.35—8.35—9.35

REGARDLESS OF THEIR COST.

This Readjustment of Prices and Clearance Sale
Will Start Monday Morning, December 27, 1920

NORTH SHORE BOOTERY

NORTH SHORE HOTEL
Davis St. and Chicago Ave.

Evanston, Illinois

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Edward Koerber presented two of her very small pupils, Grace and Marie Erickson, respectively five and six years of age, in recital, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Erickson, 565 Hawthorn lane. The little girls played exceptionally well, and proved a credit to Mrs. Koerber and her teachings. Following is the program presented:

- A. Schmitt, Kohler—Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4
Grace and Marie Erickson.
- A. Loeschorn—No. 1
Marie and Mrs. Koerber
- A. Loeschorn—No. 2
Grace and Mrs. Koerber
- Oliver Ditson — Marie and Mrs. Koerber.
- Nina's Waltz—Grace and Mrs. Koerber.
- Peasant Song—Marie and Mrs. Koerber.
- A Rainy Day—Marie and Mrs. Koerber.
- Peter's Book, No. 31—Duettos—....
Grace and Marie Erickson.
- The Cuckoo Marie Erickson
- Allegretto, Kohler, No. 35— Grace Erickson.
- The Happy Child, G. P. Ritter—....
Marie Erickson.
- The Songs from the "Cluck Hen"—
Marie and Grace Erickson.

On December 10, Helen Ley, of Fond du Lac, Wis, a little eight-year-old pupil of Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, of Winnetka, gave a program before a group of musically prominent members of Kenilworth society. Among her numbers, all of which were given with technique, phrasing and interpretation surprising in one so young, were the Mozart C minor, Santa; three Woodland Sketches, by MacDowell; Peer Gynt Suite, by Greig, and De Blanc's Tanentella. Miss Genevieve Fitzgerald, harpist, added a charming touch to the program with her graceful appearance and the rich beauty of her tone.

A pleasure surprise was given the women of Christ church on Monday afternoon by Mrs. William A. Thrall, who introduced Signor Donato Colefenimia, an Italian tenor, with Mrs. Gerturde Crosscup Perkins at the piano. Mr. Colefenimia recently returned from a concert tour in the east and is giving many recitals in the city. He returns east in June for a long engagement.

Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Stewart Johnson, in Washington, has returned to Winnetka for the holidays. Mrs. Johnson will not open her home before she goes to California, and therefore will have her usual "at home" for all her friends on Christmas Day at the home of her son and daughter, Major and Mrs. Raymond Hardenbergh, on Private road, Hubbard Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, of Sheridan road, will give a dancing party next Tuesday evening, at the Winnetka Woman's club, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marcella Mettler, who has returned from Smith college, Miss Elinor Woodward and Mr. Julian Woodward, who have returned from Miss Benntt's school and Cornell to spend the holidays at their home, 565 Sheridan road.

A congressional congress will be held at the Congress hotel, on December 28, 29 and 30. There will be a number of delegates from the Winnetka Woman's club, among them Mrs. James H. Porter and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber.

Miss Olivia Fentress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fentress of Hubbard Woods, will give a sports luncheon at the Indian Hill club on Sunday, December 26.