

Woman's Club

A regular meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club was held on Thursday, January 13, at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Porter presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. de Windt read a very important announcement from the New Trier Township High school. In place of the usual spring exhibit a pageant commemorating the Landing of the Pilgrims will be given on the campus one afternoon and two evenings in June. It is planned to make this an elaborate and well thought-out affair, and any suggestions or advice from the public will be most welcome. Also any help with the planning and making of the costumes or the loan of articles suitable for stage properties will be most gratefully received. Further notices will be given out from time to time as the plans progress. Ideas and suggestions may be communicated to Miss Packer, Miss Grover or Miss Stanley. Mrs. Porter then made an appeal for the fund being raised for the starving children of Europe and urged everyone who had not already done so to contribute. She then made the following announcements. Mrs. Stephen Foster and Miss Elizabeth Gemmell have been appointed delegates to the League of Women Voters. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson will be glad to hear from anyone interested in the formation of a Drama Study class. Mrs. Wallace W Chickering, delegate to the Women's Legislative Congress which met December 28 and 29, gave a report of the meetings. Mrs. Porter spoke again of the Smith-Towner bill, which was discussed at the last meeting and urged every member to write to Senator Sherman and Representative Chindblom in Washington urging their support of this very important bill.

of the Civics and Philanthropy committee introduced Mr. Horace J. Bridges, who spoke on "British Labor Parties." It is impossible to imagine a more lucid and convincing speaker than Mr. Bridges, or a talk in which a greater amount of information could be so comprehensively presented in such a limited time. The few words which Mr. Bridges spoke on the Irish question, in answer to a question from the floor, were an address in themselves. It may interest those who were unable to be present and who are interested in the subject of Mr. Bridges' lecture to know that he recommends very highly Arthur Gleason's book, "What the Workers Want," as an excellent treatise on the labor question in England.

There will be a departmental meeting next Thursday in charge of the Music committee. Further announcement in regard to it is made elsewhere in this issue. The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, January 27, at 2:30 o'clock, and will consist of a Loan Exhibition of pictures and sculpture.

The hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Charles A. Aldrich, Mrs. Wallace H. Beals Mrs. James O. Ely, and Mrs. Albert M. Scharf.

Death-Defying Airman Appears in Picture Which Caused His Death;
Serial Continues

"A true American gentleman, a daredevil who knew the meaning of danger but did not fear it a fine man fusing 'fine' in its best sense."

That is how Louise Lovely, the William Fox star, describes Lt. Ormer Locklear whose fellow-player she was in "The Skywayman," the great drama of the air which is coming to the Community House next Friday evening.

Of course, Locklear himself is responsible for most of the thrills in "The Skywayman" but Miss Lovely has quite a large share of them, too.

"When I became a motion picture actress," she said, "I did not dream that going up in an airplane would be part of my job. I had taken short flights as a passenger before we began work on 'The Skymayman,' but in this picture I found new flying thrills. However, I am no flying woman, and I shall always prefer to do my acting as near the ground as possible."
