

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley.

WO short plays, "The Florist Shop" and "The Marble Arch" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Laird Bell, by the teachers of the Winnetka Public schools, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association on Monday evening, February 7, at the Winnetka Woman's club. A sketch in interpretative dancing will be given by Mr. Clarke, Miss Schaefer and Miss Loudenback.

Many of the teachers are busily engaged in designing and making favors for the cotillion which is to follow the entertainment, led by Mr. Nathaniel H. Blatchford, Jr., and Mr. John Reilly. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Charles Howells Coffin, Mrs. Laird Bell or Mrs. Frank Crawford, members of the committee which is sponsoring this affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Samson J. Eisendrath of 527 Cherry street, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Edna, to Irving B. Eppenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eppenstein of Elgin. The wedding will take place on Monday evening, February 7, at 6:30 o'clock at the Drake hotel, to be followed by a dinner and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bartleman of Green Bay road, Glencoe, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel, to William C. Heinrichs of Milwaukee. No date has been set for the wedding.

A Regional Conference will be held by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union on February 1st and 2nd at the Edgewater Beach hotel, commencing at 9:30 a. m. In the forenoon addresses will be made by Mrs. Frances P. Parke, national secretary, on "Organization" and by Mrs. Culla of Vayhinges National Director of Americanization. The afternoon session will include addresses by Mrs. Minnie B. Horning on "Prison Reform"; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Perkins, national director of Child Welfare; Miss Mary B. Irvine, general secretary of Loyal Temperance Legion.

The evening service in the Edgewater Presbyterian church will consist of talks by such interesting people as Edward J. Brundage, Attorney General of Illinois on "The Eighteenth Amendment" and "Law Enforcement" and by Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston on "The Nineteenth Amendment and the Woman Citizen". There will be three sessions on Wednesday at the Edgewater Beach hotel with full and interesting programs. The public is cordially invited to any and all of these meetings.

The second visit of Mrs. Edward MacDowell to Wilmette, this season is significant of the tangible awakening of the north shore to the great art development in this country which Mrs. MacDowell represents. Her visit in December was in the nature of an illustrated lecture-recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Arrowood. Mrs. MacDowell returns to the same home on the night of February 5 to organize the North Shore MacDowell society at the request of those present on the previous occasion, augmented by many others who were unable to express themselves then. Mrs. MacDowell will give a short musical program of her husband's works and the remainder of the evening will be given over to organizing and getting acquainted with the honor guest.

The art itself knows no limitations so this movement knows none and anyone who believes art is a good thing for this old world of ours and who wishes to further it, is welcome to become a member. Further information may be obtained through Mrs. Milton Arrowood.

A most interesting as well as instructive talk on the subject, "The Church and the Community" was given by Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber at the meeting on January 26th of the Woman's society of the Congregational Church, in charge of the Missions committee. A large percentage of the membership list turned out for this meeting, and incidentally to enjoy some delightful songs by Mrs. William A. Thrall. The hostesses, Mrs. Norman K. Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Dean, Mrs. Theodore Coyne, and Mrs. Frank Root added much to the social enjoyment of the occasion.

One hundred Winnetka men will canvass every home in Winnetka on Sunday afternoon in the interest of Community House. The purpose of the canvass is threefold; to solicit subscriptions to Community House; to seek volunteer Community House workers; to invite suggestions, criticisms and opinions concerning the work at Community House, with a view to obtaining valuable ideas on the general improvement of the work at Community House. Community House commands the active interest and support of scores of Winnetka social leaders.

Of interest to the older village residents is the announcement that the Misses Ysobel and Maxine Arnold, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Arnold, of 70 Scott street, Chicago, formerly of Wilmette, and granddaughters of Mrs. R. M. Buckman of that village, left on Wednesday of this week for California, where they will join Pavlowa and her troupe. Until recently these attractive young women have been appearing in premiere roles with Pavley Oukransky in opera ballet.

Among the prenuptial parties which are being given for Miss Rachel Embree, daughter of Mrs. J. R. Embree of Evanston whose marriage to Donald Scott will be an event of February 1, was a luncheon and bridge given by Miss Frances Kent, of Winnetka, at the Woman's Athletic club on Monday afternoon of this week, and a buffet supper and dance on Monday evening of next week given by Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson, 429 Sheridan road.

The Musical department of the Winnetka Woman's club will present the next program on February 17, with Mrs. E. C. Andrews in charge. Among those who will participate are Mrs. L. O. Starbuck, of Winnetka, soprano, Miss Julia Marshall, violinist and Miss Mary Marshall, pianist, of Evanston, Mrs. Harold Knox, wife of Professor Knox of Northwestern University, harpist, and Mrs. N. W. Harris pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. John Borino entertained at dinner on Friday evening of last week at their home, 859 Elm street, in honor of Maestro and Mrs. Marinuzzi, who left this week for New York, where the Maestro will continue his work with the Grand Opera company. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. Cupera of Edgewater, Mr. Valerio, editor of the Italian Tribune, and Mrs. Valerio, and Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Pagliarulo.

The regular all day meeting of the Woman's Guild of the Congregational Church will be held Wednesday, February 2nd, at ten o'clock, Mrs. Frederic Dickinson will read. The subject of the luncheon program is "Making Lent a Ladder." The society is obliged to call attention to its rule that only children accompanied by their mothers are eligible to come to the luncheon.

A benefit dancing party for William Haines, one of our own Winnetka boys, who is ill with tuberculosis, in the Evanston Fresh Air hospital, will be given on Thursday evening of next week at the Winnetka Womans' club. Members of the Preparedness club, and the Thimble club are sponsoring the affair, which promises to be most successful, both from a social and financial standpoint.

An announcement of interest in university circles is made by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hagle of Evanston of the marriage of their daughter, Frances Irene, to Harold Dittman of Chicago, on Saturday, January 15.
