

NORTH SHORE ACES MEET ALL COMERS; NO LOSSES

All-star Basket Ball Aggregation Takes Chicago and Wiluette Outfits Into Tow.

The North Shore Aces, New Trier township's crack basket ball five, made the highly touted Buena A. C.'s look like weak sisters at the Chicago gym last Saturday evening walking away with a 40 to 10 engagement. Ligare and Gruver starred for the locals.

On Wednesday the North Shore lads trimmed the Wilmette A. C. squad 28 to 3 just to show they didn't mind trimming some of the boys in their own territory.

The Aces were scheduled to play the Mark A. C. five of Evanston, in Winnetka last evening.

The North Shore Aces are an all-star aggregation of basket flingers and have yet to meet defeat though their toughest encounters are still in the offing. The Aces are to meet the top-notch outfits of the city including the formidable "Big Five" led by the stellar Paddy Driscoll of national football fame who likewise plays a fast running guard role on the basket ball floor.

The Aces meet the Wilson avenue Exmoors on the Winnetka floor this evening.

The North Shore Aces line-up includes Ligare, Northwestern; Murphy, Loyola; Gruver, Illinois; Cadenhead, Lane; Fahey, New Trier High school and other stars of known ability. The team is under the management of John J. Hartnett, of Winnetka.

NEW TRIER LOSES TWO.

New Trier light and heavyweight basketball teams submitted to their first defeats of the present league schedule Saturday evening at La Grange, the Rand and Kershaw clan dropping a 17-15 tilt and the heavies losing a 20-19 engagement. La Grange is scheduled to appear Tuesday, Feb. 8, at the north shore school, at which time Coach Childs hopes to avenge the loss.

OUILMETTE K OF C. BOWLERS TAKE 2 FROM EVANSTONIANS

The Ouilmette Council, Knights of Columbus bowlers, went into a tie with Columbus for third place Monday evening when they twice defeated the Newmanites of Evanston, submitting to one defeat in return. University took a trio of tilts from Columbus.

Kutten rolled high game of the evening for the locals when he scored 214 pins. Steiner made seven strikes in the third game but was kept from rolling a high game by two "railroads" and a "break." Ouilmette vs. University and Columbus vs. Newman next Tuesday evening.

HARD SCHEDULE FACES HIGH SCHOOL NATATORS

New Trier High school's swimming team has a strenuous schedule ahead if one may judge by the accompanying list of meets, in which they are to participate:

Saturday, January 29, 8 p. m.—Milwaukee "Y" Seniors, at New Trier.

Friday, February 4, 8 p. m.—Hyatt Park Seniors and Juniors, at New Trier.

Saturday, February 5, 3 p. m.—New Trier Seniors at Evanston.

Friday, February 11, 8 p. m.—Central "Y" Seniors, at New Trier.

Friday, February 18, 8 p. m.—Morton Seniors and Juniors, at New Trier.

Saturday, February 19, 8 p. m.—Lane Seniors and Juniors, at New Trier.

NEW TRIER HIGH PLANS GREAT PAGEANT IN JUNE

In view of the fact that the tercentenary celebration of the Landing of the Pilgrims is assuming extensive recognition throughout the United States this year, New Trier Township High school has decided to give a pageant recalling this event, in place of the usual Spring exhibit at the High school next June.

The High school is planning to make this pageant quite elaborate. Its program is now being carefully worked out by various committees representing all departments of the school, and every phase of school activities. Services of every instructor and student in the school are enlisted in the preparation for this unusual event.

N. T. SWIMMERS BUSY

New Trier swimmers will engage Morton High school at the Morton natatorium Friday evening in a Suburban league meet. On Saturday evening Milwaukee "Y" will be represented at the New Trier tank by swimmers from the Cream City and the juniors of Evanston High school will splash against the north shore lads.
