

N. U. ORCHESTRA IN SYMPHONY CONCERT

North Shore Residents Interested in Annual Musical Presentation Scheduled for February 17

North shore residents will be interested in the forthcoming concert to be given on Thursday evening, Feb. 17, in Northwestern university gymnasium, the twenty-fourth concert of the symphony orchestra of the school of music of the university. This will be the second concert of the year given by the orchestra for the people of the north shore.

The orchestra now has a membership of approximately eighty members. It has been in existence for the past ten years, and has become known as one of the best orchestras of its kind in the country. The reason for this was explained by Prof. Harold E. Knapp, director of the orchestra. "We live in a community," he said, "that is rather extraordinary in the way of musical talent. Besides the students of the school of music, we have easy access to the best of professional talent in Chicago. Then we also open our ranks to the civilians of the north shore.

"An orchestra composed of these three groups is a unique organization. However, we do not use a great deal of professional talent. But a large number of our best violinists are people who have no connection with the school of music, but who had unusual training when they were children and now live here. We have the very best training that money could buy."

Professor Knapp will be assisted in the presentation of the program by Walter Allen Stults, basso, and Lewis Randolph Blackman, violinist. The program follows:

 Les Preludes, Symphonic Poem No. 3 Franz Liszt
 Violin Concerto in G Minor, Op. 26 Max Bruch
 Vorspiel.
 Adagio.
 Finale.

Intermission

O Promise of a Joy Divine, from "The King of Lahore".... Massenet
 Vulcan's Song, from "Philemon and Baucis" Ch. Gounod
 Elegiac Melodies, for String Orchestra, Op. 34 Grieg
 Heart Wounds.
 Spring.
 Valse des Fleurs, from "Casse-Noisette" Suite Tchaikowsky
 Irish Rhapsody Victor Herbert

NEWMANS TRIM OUILMETTE K. OF C. BOWLERS TWICE

Knights of Columbus of Ouilmette council were defeated by Newman's crack bowling quintet at Evanston Monday evening in two of three games. University dropped three tilts to Columbus.

The first game was a one-sided affair, the Evanstonians winning by more than 100 pins. In the second affair they repeated, but victory was only attained by a 3-pin margin. The third game resulted in a win for Ouilmette by a safe margin.

Ouilmette vs. University and Newman vs. Columbus is the schedule for next Tuesday evening.

The term "Old Glory" was first applied to the American flag in 1831 by a New England skipper, William Driver.

He loved her--she thought him her brother

John Keith was impersonating Derwent Conniston. He had rehearsed thoroughly every detail of the English officer's life, but had not been warned that Conniston had a sister. And so, when he found her a wonderfully pretty little thing who called him brother, he loved her instantly; he wanted to tell her the truth, yet he knew that if he did so, he, a fugitive from justice, would be hanged.

This is only part of the extraordinary tale, "The River's End," by James Oliver Curwood.
