

SCHROEDER ASSAULT CASE
MERRY-GO-ROUND AFFAIR

Changes of Venue and Continuances
Keep Interested Parties Busy
Traveling North Shore

Changes of venue and continuances feature the now-celebrated case of Perry vs. Schroeder which was to have been heard in Justice Falk's court but was taken, at the request of the complainant, to the sanctum of Justice Arthur S. McKenna of Ken worth where, again, at the request of the complainant, the hearing was continued until Tuesday, March 8, at 4 o'clock.

The case, in which Paul Schroeder, north shore realty operator, is charged with assault on the person of F. H. Perry of Glencoe, said to be over 80 years of age, was first brought into magistrate D. M. Mickey's Wilmette court. Schroeder took a change of venue to justice Falk and asked a continuance. All that happened two weeks ago. A week ago Schroeder was granted another continuance by Justice Falk.

The case, in which Paul Schroeder, tereed suit before Justice Falk to obtain $300 as his commission in the real estate transaction which resulted in the altercation to be settled soon, perhaps, in the courts, if they don't run shy of justices.
