

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

A NNOUNCEMENT has been made of the engagement of Miss Constance Kroh, of Cleveland, Ohio, to Captain Warner B. Gates, United States Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Gates, of Wilmette. The wedding will take place at an early date.

Of interest on the north shore is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Davis, daughter of Samuel Davis of Chicago, to Lisle M. Albright, son of Adam Emory Albright, of Hubbard Woods, on Thursday evening, February 24, at the Ravenswood Congregational church. At present, Mr. and Mrs. Albright are stopping at the La Salle hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George Park, of Glencoe, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Dale, to Cecil W. Boyle of Evanston, and of Greencastle, Ind. Mr. Boyle was formerly instructor in chemistry at New Trier high school. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Van Ness, of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel Rutk, to Robert H. McElroy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McElroy of 704 Sheridan road. The wedding will take place in September.

A large group of representative men and women from Chicago and the north shore attended the "inspection tea" at the Winter Camp at Arden Shore on Saturday afternoon of last week. This camp, which in summer is open to mothers and children from Chicago tenements, in winter is the home of undernourished boys sent out by the Chicago Board of Education to be built up so that they may qualify for working certificates.

The new recreation hall, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Hamill of Lake Forest, was formally opened on this occasion, and a short and to-the-point informal talk was given Mr. Clow, in whose employ there are a number of the boys who have been dismissed from the camp.

Assisting Mrs. Carl Latham the president of Arden Shore Association, in receiving were the following officers:

Vice-president, Mrs. Robert B. Gregory and Mrs. Grant Ridgway; Treasurer, Mrs. E. Parmelee; recording secretary, Miss Gladys Spry; corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Thorne, district chairman, Mrs. John Slade of Evanston, Mrs. J. J. Siddall of Wilmette, Mrs. Mark Cressap of Kenilworth, Mrs. John Montgomery of Winnetka, and Mrs. Frederick Penfield of Glencoe.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Parmelee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Parmelee of Kenilworth, to Mr. Samuel Loomis Hypes, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hypes of Evanston will be solemnized on Saturday evening, March 12.

In the wedding party will be Miss Muriel Hypes, as maid of honor; Mrs. Frank A. Gerould, as matron of honor; and Miss Margaret Pitch, Mrs. Reed G. Landis, Miss Priscilla Allen and Miss Clementine Eastman, who will be bridesmaids. Mr. Frank Gerould will attend his brother as best man, and the ushers will include Messrs. Edward K. Parmelee, Dwinell Slater, Wesley Behel of Lake Bluff, Albert Watters of Johnstown, Penn., and Donald Pettit of Princeton, New Jersey.

An interesting bit of news comes to us from Palm Beach regarding the water sports program that was held at the Casino on February 24. The contests were held in the pool, while the spectators sat about the large tank. The ladies' race included the entire length of the pool, a distance of fifty yards. There were five entries, of which Miss Dorothy Klotz of Winnetka proved to be the fleetest. In the relay race, booked for mixed doubles, with a distance of 200 yards to swim, Miss Dorothy Klotz and her partner again took the honors. Among the ladies, Miss Klotz also proved to be the best diver, which, according to the "Palm Beach News," is saying considerable in her favor as there were some very strong competitors among those whom she defeated.

Mrs. Phelps B. Hoyt and her father, Mr. Benjamin Allen, left Thursday for New York, where they will be for a couple of weeks before proceeding to Virginia Hot Springs. Mrs. Hoyt's daughter, Miss Emily Hoyt, who is in school at Dobbs Ferry, will go south with them. Mr. Allen will reopen his home on Sheridan road May 1.

On Wednesday afternoon, March 9, the Social committee of the Woman's Guild of the Congregational church will hold the second of a series of teas at Community House between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

An all-day meeting of the Woman's society of the Congregational church was held on Wednesday at Community House. During the morning session, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson read the play, "Lady Windemere's Fan." Luncheon followed and during the afternoon Mrs. Henry Newman, who is interested in Quaker Relief work, gave an interesting address on this subject.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Miss Lillian Struggles, 879 Cherry street, on Monday, March 7, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Jonathan C. Drake of Wilmette, Superintendent of Child Welfare and Americanization of Foreign mothers.

Another clipping from the Palm Beach News which will interest many of us, makes note of the fact that Charles Klotz, Jr., has entered the men's tennis singles for the annual championship at this famous southern resort, to be played this week.

June 25 is the date set for the wedding of Miss Olive Bulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bulley of Kenilworth, and Ward Starrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Starrett of Washington, D. C., formerly of Kenilworth. The ceremony will take place in the Union church.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Landis of New York, arrived in Chicago last Saturday, and are the guests of Judge and Mrs. K. M. Landis, at the Edgewater Beach hotel, while they are house-hunting in Winnetka, where they hope to make their home indefinitely.

At the annual meeting of Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross on Thursday the following Winnetka and Glencoe men were re-elected on the managing board of the chapter for the term ending January 1, 1924: Calvin Fentress, Howard W. Fenton, John W. Scott of Winnetka, and James Simpson of Glencoe.

Among north shore women who sponsored the card party given yesterday at the Wellesley Wayside Inn, are Mrs. Bruce MacLeish of Glencoe, and Mrs. William Sherman Hay and Mrs. James Fentress of Winnetka.

An all-day meeting of the Woman's Guild and Auxiliary of Christ church will be held on Monday, at the Parish house. Luncheon will be served at noon, followed by an address by Miss Leila Houghteling on, "The Work of the United Charities".

Mrs. H. M. Hess, 1082 Pine street, has been enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Richards, of Benton Harbor, Mich. Mrs. Richards returned home the first of the week.
