his own home on the beautiful Kankakee river, were interesting indeed. Most every one of us went home with the idea that we wanted to attract some of the lovely songsters to our own homes.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Howard Dilkes, William Hurd, Frank Rutledge and Horace Jarvis.

The Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette is giving a benefit card party on Thursday afternoon of next week at the home of Mrs. Wendelin P. Seng, 401 Lake avenue, Wilmette. The proceeds are to be devoted to the Near East Relief fund.

Job applicants and employers are listed in a card index, according to their abilities and needs by Nashville, Tenn., Post of the American Legion, which has been successful in obtaining employment for many ex-service men.
