

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MR. and Mrs. William Brewster Fitch of Kenilworth have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Fitch, to Mr. William Wood McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, 526 Greenwood boulevard, Evanston, Saturday evening, April 2. The ceremony will take place in the Congregational church at Winnetka.

Mrs. Courtenay Aten of New York will be matron of honor. Miss Lucy McCarthy, a sister of the bridegroom, will be maid of honor. Mrs. Reed Landis, formerly Miss Marion Keehn, and Mrs. Samuel Loomis Hypes, who was Miss Charlotte Parmelee, and whose wedding was an event of Saturday, March 12, will be bridesmaids. Little George Woodland, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Woodland of Kenilworth, will be ring bearer. Miss Mary Louise Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoyt of Winnetka, is to be flower girl. Mr. Walter Buswell will serve as best man for the bridegroom.

The ushers will be Mr. Guy Osborn, Mr. Lorenz Devitt, Mr. William Valentine, Mr. Stanley Adams and Mr. Cornelius Reece.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Indian Hill Country club.

Mr. McCarthy and his bride will live at 904 Elmwood avenue, Evanston, after June 1.

A program which promises to be one of the most stimulating yet offered by the Drama Study club will be held on Monday, March 21, at three o'clock in the Winnetka Woman's club. At this meeting Mrs. A. Starr Best of Evanston, ex-president of the Drama League and one of its most active promoters, will speak on "The Drama and Its Relation to National Life."

This will be an unusual opportunity for anyone interested in the subject of the drama and is open to anyone in the community, free to members of the Woman's club, and to guests upon payment of the regular guest fee.

The next regular meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club will be held Thursday, March 24, at 2:30 o'clock. The afternoon is in charge of the Music committee, who have arranged a most delightful recital. Mrs. Burton Atwood, the chairman, announces the following program:

Master and Miss Williams, 'cellist and pianist of Chicago, son and daughter of Mr. Day Williams, 'cellist, were the assisting guests and rendered several very enjoyable numbers. The meeting was followed by a delightful social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilder are giving up their apartment on North Michigan avenue, Chicago, June 1 and will move into their new home in Winnetka, where they expect to reside permanently.

Mrs. Allan Ira Wolf or 352 Ridge avenue, will entertain the Ridge Avenue Circle on Monday, March 21, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. T. N. Wheatley, 329 Fairview avenue, has been confined to his home with measles.

Mr. R. J. Shortlidge of Wallingford, Conn., was the guest last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Russel M. Heller, 559 Provident avenue. Mr. Shortlidge is one of the head masters of Choate School and of Camp Marienfeld, Chesham, N. H.

This is the camp described by C. Hanford Henderson in "What Is It to Be Educated?" On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Heller opened their home for an informal reception in honor of their guest, who has many old-time friends on the north shore.

Invitations were issued early this week for the marriage of Miss Virginia Olwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brandt Olwin, to John Rutherford Nicholson of Chicago, to take place on Saturday evening, April 2, at the Congregational church of Wilmette. Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd will read the service at eight-thirty o'clock. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olwin, 820 Lake avenue, Wilmette.

A family reunion of close relatives of Harry Gordon Selfridge of London, was held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Paul Young, 708 Prospect avenue. The marriage of Miss Violette Selfridge, daughter of the London merchant, to Vicomte de Silbour is to take place in the Brompton Oratory church in London early in May. The bridal couple are planning a trip to the States during the coming summer.

Arriving from St. Timothy's school at Simsbury, Conn., Saturday, March 26, are Miss Mary Boyden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden; Miss Alice de Windt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt; Miss Barbara Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott; Miss Harriet Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Leonard, and Miss Mary Fentress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress.

The Winnetka Relief and Aid society needs clothing shoes and household articles. Everything that can be found during housecleaning time will be used to good advantage if sent to Miss Kate Dwyer, 858 Elm street, Mrs. Lawrence M. Stein will call for the packages, if you will phone her, Winnetka 170.

Mrs. William S. Hay, of 645 Sheridan road, and Miss Gertrude Pearce, of Lake Forest, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Irwin Rew of Evanston on Thursday of last week at the Wellesley Wayside Inn.

Miss Jean Alton, 577 Cherry street, is spending a fortnight in New Orleans, as the guest of Mrs. Basil Thompson.

"Honey," a play of southern mountaineers, will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Sherman Goble at Community House, on Wednesday, March 21, at 2:30 o'clock. Special music will add to the program, which is given by the Missions committee of the Congregational Woman's society. The hostesses are Mrs. Frank Blair, Mrs. Arlan Converse, Mrs. George Campbell, and Mrs. Samuel Thomson Burke.

This is also to be the occasion of a "shower" for the Prucha family. This family, in whom many of the Winnetka women are interested, consists of the father who was a Congregational minister but is now an invalid, the mother who cares for him and keeps the home, and two bright daughters, who, with insufficient means are struggling for a college education. Almost anything will be accepted; money, household supplies, linen, food, clothing and such articles as might be needed by two girls in college.

The women of the community are cordially invited to come and enjoy the program and to have a part in helping this worthy family.
