LEGION RALLY BRINGS DISTINGUISHED GUESTS

Remarkable Array of Speakers to Appear at Monster Rally to Be Held at Glencoe Village School Hall

OFFICIALS ON PROGRAM

Gen. Foreman, Col. Clinnin and State Officials of American Legion to Lead Great Meeting

Gen. Milton J. Foreman, Col. Clinnin, Rev. Dr. Samuel N. Eaton, William R. McCauley, William O. Setliffe and Roger V. Flory comprise the speakers at the monster American Legion rally to be held at the Glencoe Village school auditorium, Wednesday evening, March 30, by the Glencoe Post of the American Legion, in co-operation with the churches and clubs of that village.

Never before in the history of the north shore has such an array of distinguished and forceful speakers appeared on the rostrum at a single meeting. Milton J. Foreman, one of the outstanding leaders in the World War and commander of the Illinois National Guard, is a bulwark of strength in the American Legion. He was formerly State Commander for Illinois has been active in both state and national work of the organization of World War veterans. Gen. Foreman is an eminent platform orator.

Distinguished War Hero

Col. John V. Clinnin, another hero of the World War and prominent figure in Legion ranks, is a speaker of wide reputation. Colonel Clinnin has been particularly active in developing "clean athletics" through the medium of the American Legion.

Dr. Samuel N. Watson, rector of St. Elizabeth's church, Glencoe, and former pastor of the American church of Winnetka, needs no introduction to Winnetkans. He ranks with the foremost as a thinker and orator. Dr. Watson was a resident of France during the entire period of the World War, gained greater distinction than perhaps any civilian American in recognition of his sterling services in relief work.

William R. McCauley is the progressive State Commissioner of the Illinois American Legion, and will have some interesting information to convey concerning the work the organization has accomplished in every section of the State.

William O. Setliffe and Roger V. Flory are, respectively, State Adjutant and the Director of Organization of the Illinois American Legion.

The great rally is given for the single purpose of arousing interest in north shore residents in the work and projects of their local legion posts. It is the endeavor of the Legion men to get the north shore solidly behind the American Legion by acquainting them with actual facts regarding the foundation, history, purposes and ambitions of the Legion.

Legion posts from Evanston to Lake Forest, inclusive, will attend the rally in a body and various organizations of the north shore are expected to be represented by large delegations. The meeting is open to all residents without charge.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Haven Foster, 556 Chestnut street, is expected to return today from the Henrotin Hospital, Chicago, where she recently underwent an operation.

TURN YOUR CLOCK AHEAD

Turn your clock and watch ahead just one hour, Saturday night, so that when you arise on Sunday morning you will be "in tune" with the world. Daylight Saving time goes into effect officially on Sunday, March 27.

Church services are to be held at the customary hours, but at Daylight Saving time. Suburban train schedules on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, will follow the change in time. That is, all trains will be scheduled exactly one hour ahead of standard time. Arrangements on the Chicago, North Shore & Milwaukee Electric railway, had not been announced at time of going to press.

You'll miss the church services and the train if you fail to get in line with the Daylight Saving time. Turn you clock ahead one hour!

And there may be a few others by way of surprise.

Carlton W. Washburne, superintendent of Winnetka school, will be the interlocutor, and this alone assures that the jokes will have the assistance of an expert middleman to put them over.

Rehearsals are being held regularly under the direction of Mr. Joe Bren, of the Joe Bren Production Company. Mr. Bren, in an interview with this special correspondent, said: "The talent we have in this show is way above the average which we secure in some of our biggest productions."

"The Mice Will Play," a purely local sketch, written by local talent, will enlighten as well as amuse, for it exposes facts hitherto kept dark! Yes, it's black-face, too.

Tickets are going fast. They can be procured at the Winnetka Pharmacy, Adams' Pharmacy, Hubbard Woods Pharmacy, from the grade chairmen of the Parent-Teacher association or at the door on the nights of the show. You are asked to call Winnetka 648, in the event you are unable to get tickets through the above sources. There is a small reserve. "Better be sure than sorry. Buy Now," is the slogan of the committee in charge.

What about the proposed Department of State Police?

That vitally interesting and important question of concern to every citizen of Illinois and, by the same token, every citizen of Winnetka, will be the topic of a debate before a mass meeting at the Winnetka Woman's club, Friday evening, April 1, at 8:15 o'clock, under the auspices of the Winnetka Woman's club and the Winnetka Men's club.

Discussion on the bill before the State Assembly seeking establishment of a Department of State Police, or State Constabulary, will comprise the evening's activities.

In the debate, Hon. Frank P. Sadler, state senator from Chicago, will assume the affirmative, while Victor Olander, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Federation of Labor, will essay the negative.

Every resident of Winnetka is invited to hear this debate and join in the discussion.

EXPECT PACKED HOUSE FOR GLENNETKA SHOW

Ten Big Acts of Vaudeville, Excellent Music and World of Real Fun Promised Local Residents

Every available seat in the Winnetka Woman's club auditorium will be occupied on the evening of Monday, April 4, upon the occasion of the presentation of the great ten-act variety show to be staged under the direction of the Masonic Low Twelve club of Winnetka and Glencoe. That is the word sent out by the committee of the club in charge of arrangements, basing its opinion on the record sale of tickets at the Adams' pharmacy.

Patrons of the variety shows in the big theatrical centers are looking forward to the Glennetka show with keen pleasure, for Variety will be written all over the splendid program now being arranged. This variety idea is emphasized in the interesting intermingling of professional and amateur acts. The professionals are of the highest type known to the theatergoer. The amateurs are rehearsing with frequency and enthusiasm and promise to give the "paid" folks a regular run for popularity.

Music of the Best

In all, the Glennetka Variety Show gives promise of rare entertainment. Music will be the best the Western Vaudeville Managers' association can provide and the acts top-notchers of stagemod.

Another interesting feature may be found in the announcement that the ushers will be taken from the ranks of local society buds, and, it is whispered, there may be a beauty contest, with prizes, to the three most attractive guides. The date is April 4. The place, the Winnetka Woman's club, and the tickets to be procured at the Adams' pharmacy or at the door. The proceeds are for Masonic benefit.

HAYDN CONCERT TREAT FOR LOVERS OF MUSIC

Great Choral Society of 75 Voices, Augmented by Distinguished Soloists, to Appear Here April 9

Winnetka, on Saturday evening, April 9, is to be privileged to hear, at her Community House, one of the foremost choral societies in the country, in the concert of the Haydn Choral society.

"We are planning to make the Winnetka concert one of the best in our career," said Richard Proud, president of the choral society, this week. "It is very probable that we will bring to it two or three soloists of national repute. We will have 75 voices at the Winnetka concert. The members of the society are very enthusiastic about the concert and I am very sure that it will prove one of the 'high lights' of the Community House attractions in the way of high class entertainment."

Wins Numerous Prizes

The Haydn Choral society was organized 15 years ago by Prof. H. W. Owens, who, up to last year, conducted it, but, owing to ill health, has relinquished the baton to his son, Haydn Owens. Haydn is reported as an accomplished musician, and as well known in New York as he is in Chicago.

The society's greatest achievement was the securing of first honors at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. Several other first prizes have been won at international contests. The work of the society has been lauded by the most exacting critics, including the music critics of the various Chicago dailies.

What Have We Here? Teachers Deserting School For Altar

Dear children:

Your Superintendent of schools, Mr Washburne, was engaged this week in scouring the well known normal schools of northern Wisconsin, in anxious quest of new teachers for the next school year.

No, your dear teachers have not been discharged. They are all very capable and we would like so much to have them with us always, but, you see, they are all such nice looking and such sweet dispositioned young persons that the young men of this and other prosperous communities have laid siege, determined and successful siege, with following result:

Five of the teachers in the Winnetka Public schools, all instructors in the Horace Mann school, are looking forward to honeymoon flats or cozy vine-clad bungalows. All will take the vow in the good old summer time.

In chronological order of announcement we have:

Miss Edna Harry and Harold Cleveland, Chicago.

Miss Margaret Casey and Paul Royer of Abilene, Kas.

Miss Mildred Jones and Harry Cadenhead, Winnetka.

Unis Wright and Glen D. McMeekin, Waverly, Ia.

Julia Steipes and Soren Ostergaard, post graduate student at the University of Chicago.

Mr. Washburne, please get the new teachers on a long term contract!

Lieut. Ely's Classic Inscribed on Tablet

Famous Words of Fallen War Hero To Be Fitting Tribute on Tablet To Be Unveiled in Church Here

Early in the summer the Winnetka Congregational church will unveil a bronze memorial tablet, a tribute to Lieut. Dinsmore Ely, Winnetka man, who fell in the line of duty in France. Carved on the tablet will be the now famous words penned by Lieut. Ely shortly before his death, "Like a Liberty Bond, it is an investment, not a loss, when a man dies for his country."

They were selected by H. C. Stearns, instructor in design at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as the most fitting inscription for the tablet which has been designed as "Tech," at the instance of Dr. James Owen Ely, 592 Cherry street, the young soldier's father.

The design has just been completed and the tablet soon will be cast and sent to Winnetka.

The words chosen for the tablet are part of young Ely's last letter home, in which he wrote:

"And I want to say in closing, if anything should happen to me, let's have no mourning, in spirit or in dress. Like a Liberty Bond, it is an investment, not a loss, when a man dies for his country. It is an honor to a family; and is that the time for weeping? I would rather leave my family rich in pleasant memories of my life than numbered in sorrow at my death."

SCHOOL FUND SUBSCRIBERS TO REVIEW CONTRACT BIDS

Review of bids received Monday evening in contracts for construction of the proposed new school building to be erected in the Skokie, March 29, in a meeting of the major subscribers to the school fund.

For the interest and information of its readers, the Winnetka Talk, in co-operation with the National Home Gardeners' association, has introduced, with this issue of the paper, a "Hints for the Garden" column. The series of articles to appear in this column, beginning with hints on preparation of the soil, will cover every phase of gardening and are expected to be of great help to every amateur gardener.
