

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

INVITATIONS were received this week for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Stickney Hammond, daughter of Mrs. James Young Hammond of Norwalk, Conn., to Robert Shaw Sturgis, son of Charles I. Sturgis of Winnetka, which will take place Saturday, April 16, at the residence of the bride's mother. The wedding will be quiet owing to the recent death of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Cyrus Hall McCormick. Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis will be at home after May 15, at 1315 Astor street, Chicago.

There will be a card party given on April 19, at the Winnetka Woman's club at 2 o'clock, for the benefit of the summer camps in Michigan, organized and directed by Rev. J. W. F. Davies for Boy Scouts and Camp Fire girls. Winnetka women are urged to keep this date open, so that they may encourage this enterprise by personal interest in this benefit.

The Art and Literature department of the Winnetka Woman's club is to entertain the club members at the afternoon meeting on April 7, with a play, "Under Control" by Louis Lafis, which we hear is most entertaining. Also Mrs. Robert Butz and Mrs. Ernst von Ammon have promised to give Longfellow's "Robert of Sicily," a recitation with interpretative music.

The same evening, the play will be given a second time, followed by a dance. An admission fee will be charged and proceeds will be used for the improvement of the club stage. You are invited to come and laugh at the play, enjoy the dance, but do not forget your admission fee if you come in the evening.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster Fitch, 331 Essex road, Kenilworth, to Mr. William Wood McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy of Evanston, will be solemnized this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Congregational church at Winnetka.

Mrs. Courtney Aten of New York will be matron of honor. Miss Lucy McCarthy, a sister of the bridegroom, will be maid of honor. Mrs. Reed Landis, formerly Miss Marion Keehn, and Mrs. Samuel Loomis Hypes, who was Miss Charlotte Parmelee, and whose wedding was an event of Saturday, March 12, will be bridesmaids. Little George Woodland, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Woodland of Kenilworth, will be ring bearer. Miss Mary Louise Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoyt of Winnetka, is to be flower girl. Mr. Walter Buswell will serve as best man for the bridegroom.

The ushers will be Mr. Guy Osborn, Mr. Lorenz Devitt, Mr. William Valentine, Mr. Stanley Adams and Mr. Cornelius Reece.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Indian Hill Country club.

Mr. McCarthy and his bride will live at 904 Elmwood avenue, Evanston, after June 1.

One of the most attractive of the early Spring weddings will be solemnized this evening in the Congregational church, Wilmette, when Miss Virginia Ruth Olwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brandt Olwin, will be united in marriage to Mr. John Rutherford Nicholson of Chicago. Reverend Stephen A. Lloyd will read the service at 8:30 o'clock.

Attending Miss Olwin as maid of honor will be Miss Katherine Scheidenhelm, of Wilmette, and the bridesmaids will include Miss Betty Dafer, of Evanston, the Misses Margaret Couffer and Frances Cutler, of Wilmette, and Miss Laura Wilson of Chicago will attend the bridegroom. Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Beatrice Billings Kennedy to Donald Frederick Brigham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forrey of Wilmette. The wedding took place on Saturday, March 26, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Billings, in Chillicothe, O. Miss Josephine Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, 435 Elm street, is at home from Dana Hall for the Easter vacation. She will remain here until after the wedding of her brother, N. Landon Hoyt, Jr., to Miss Catherine Beresford Orde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Markham B. Orde of Glencoe, which will take place late in April.

Northwestern chapter of Pi Beta Phi sorority will take a big step toward raising money for its sorority house, when, on April 29, a large card party will be given at the Woman's club of Evanston. The entire proceeds from the sale of tickets will go toward the house funds.

Since the trustees of the university have decided to solve the dormitory problem by allowing the sororities to have their own houses the Northwestern girls and the alumnae have heartily undertaken the task of raising the necessary money.

Crowded dormitory conditions in the university have been an increasingly great problem, and it is by the building of sorority houses that the university trustees hope to relieve the situation.

All possible plans to make the card party a great success are being made. There will be numerous worth-while prizes awarded, and delicious refreshments will be served.

Women of the north shore are displaying interest in the Charity Bridge to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club next Tuesday afternoon, April 5, for the benefit of the Park Ridge School for Girls.

For those women who do not play cards Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of Winnetka will give a reading which promises to be particularly interesting.

Women who will assist in the affair include Mrs. Stanley A. Clague, of Winnetka; Mrs. James Keith, of Kenilworth; Mrs. John Vennema, of Winnetka; Mrs. Frank R. Greene, of Winnetka; Mrs. Hugh Foresman, of Kenilworth, and Mrs. George Pope, of Glencoe. Refreshments will be served.

The Woman's Society of the Congregational church will hold their regular all-day meeting on Wednesday, April 6. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson will read in the morning; luncheon will follow at 12:15 o'clock, at which time Mrs. T. Arnold Hill of the Urban league of Chicago will speak on "The Negro Situation in Chicago." An invitation is extended to all who are interested.

Proceeds of another delightful musical evening amounting to $180, have been turned over the European Relief fund this week. The affair was held on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koretz in Evanston, and the guests included many music lovers from our north shore towns. The artists who presented a most interesting program were Mrs. Albert Pick Jr. of Winnetka, pianist; Mrs. Hugh Waterstone, soprano, and Miss Lorraine Ernst, a sixteen year old violinist of remarkable ability. Assisting Mrs. Koretz on this occasion was Mrs. Emmanuel Kinsteler of Wilmette.

The Wharton Clays will return to the north shore April 4 after an extended trip through Europe. They left late last year with their two children and went directly to the Riviera, leaving the children there and going on to Rome.

Mr. Clay returned via Paris and London, and Mrs. Clay extended her trip down into Southern Italy, including Switzerland and the regions of Germany occupied by the Allies.

They will again live in the James Dulan house at 1330 Sheridan road, Wilmette, for the summer.

Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall of Wilmette chairman of the Publicity committee of the Arden Shore association, gave a luncheon at the North Shore hotel on Thursday of this week for the members of her committee.

The next regular meeting of the club, on Thursday, April 7th, is in charge of the Art and Literature committee. A play, "Under Control," will be presented. Members may bring guests upon the payment of the usual fee. The play will be repeated that evening, and will be followed by a dance. The proceeds after expenses are paid will be used for the club stage improvement.

Among those of the younger set of the north shore interested in this affair are the Misses Mary and Theresa McArdle, Catherine Crush, Florence Cook, Edna Seng, Rose Millian, Elizabeth Kircheng and Gertrude and Marie O'Connell.
